Lynell Clark

To Lynell,

Always remember your (Surprise) Birthday.
Had a blast! Always seemed to be something fun doing at your house, and I hope there always is (?!!). When you needed someone to sell corsages, I was glad you called up

One of my best friends
 I will never forget.
 All the fun we had at your surprise party and all the other times too.
 Just think! We've all stuck together through our years at grade 7. C.
 I'm sure we'll all be the best of friends forever.
 Good luck you much love

Well,
To one of the sweetest girls I have ever gone with. I hope you keep your personality. The way it is, because I like it. Best of luck in the future with everything you do. (Especially with you know who.) We had lots of fun while we were together but now that we have broken up we are still having loads of fun.

As time goes by, many people fail to contribute their most to the world around them; however, one man, through the course of his life, has dedicated himself to preparing others for the future which they face. Through his many years of teaching, Mr. Pfeiffer has earned the deepest respect of his students.

Mr. Pfeiffer seems to realize there is opportunity in each passing moment. He has taken advantage of this knowledge and has accomplished much for the world around him. The people who have come in contact with him appreciate his sincerity and devotion for tackling the tasks before him. He accepts his responsibilities and carries them out wholeheartedly. For this very reason each of his students has benefited from his teaching.

As he faces the future, we can be sure he still has the enthusiastic outlook on life; and, although this is his last year of teaching, it will not be his last year of helping those around him. He will continue to have the respect of those who know him. Therefore, with our deepest gratitude we dedicate the 1967 Olive Branch to Mr. Darle Pfeiffer.

Lynell,
To one of the cutest and sharpest

knowing you this year. Stay cool and

Be Good,
Mark

As Mr. Pfeiffer well knows, the time seems to rush by without our even realizing it. Soon this year will be over, and the events will become fond memories. The 1967 staff will try to capture the important happenings in this short phase of our lives. Many events occur each day, and out of these we hope to record the prominent ones. Therefore, in the years to come, this book will help students to recall the year of 1967.

THEN PRACTICES

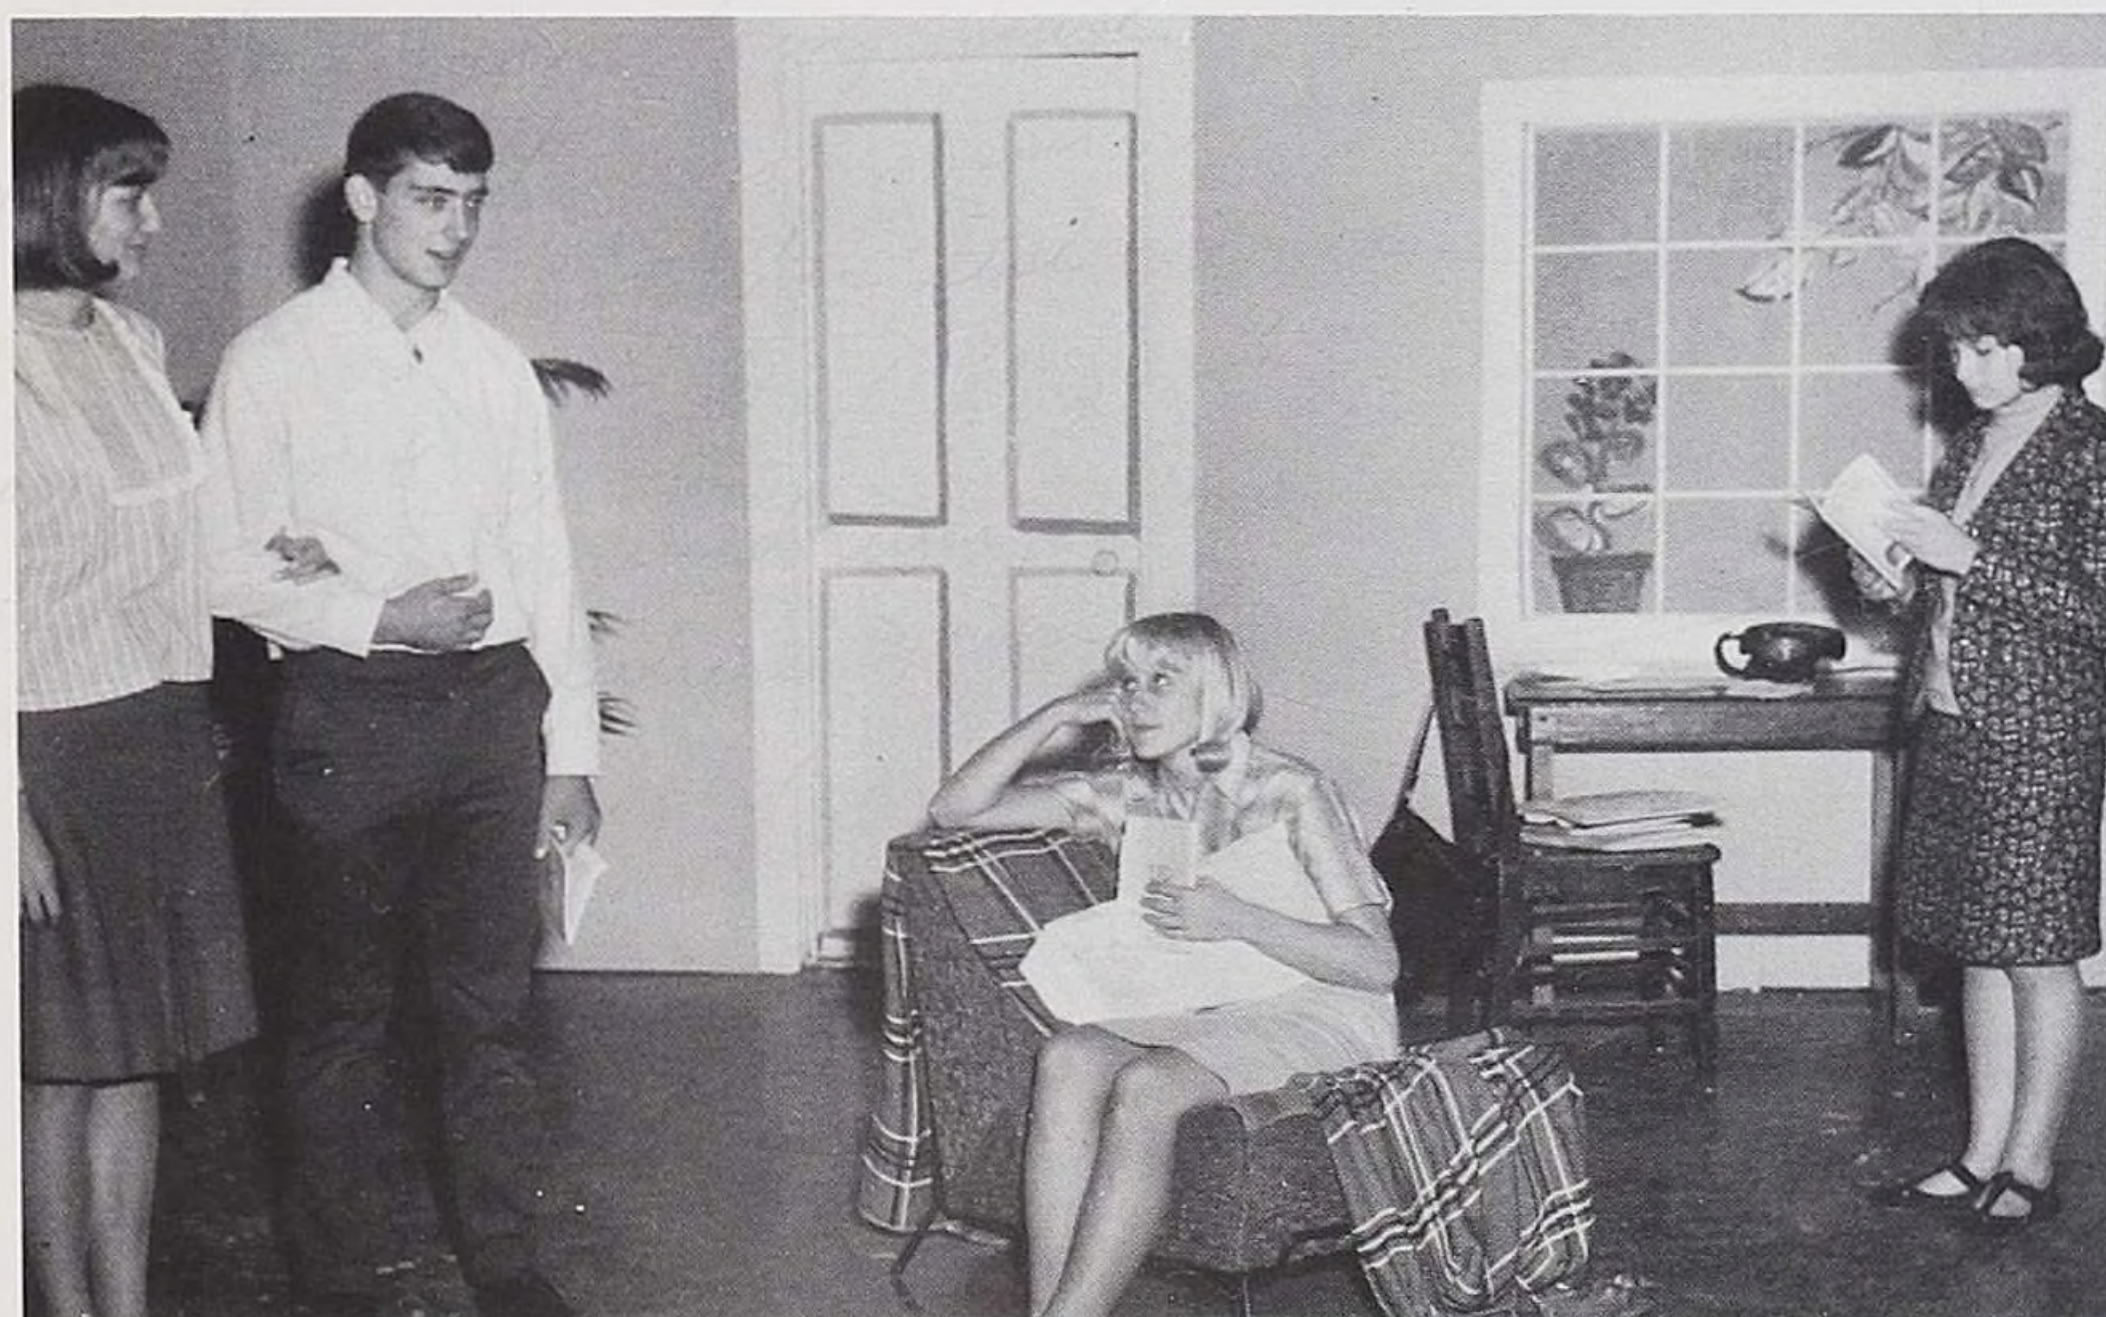

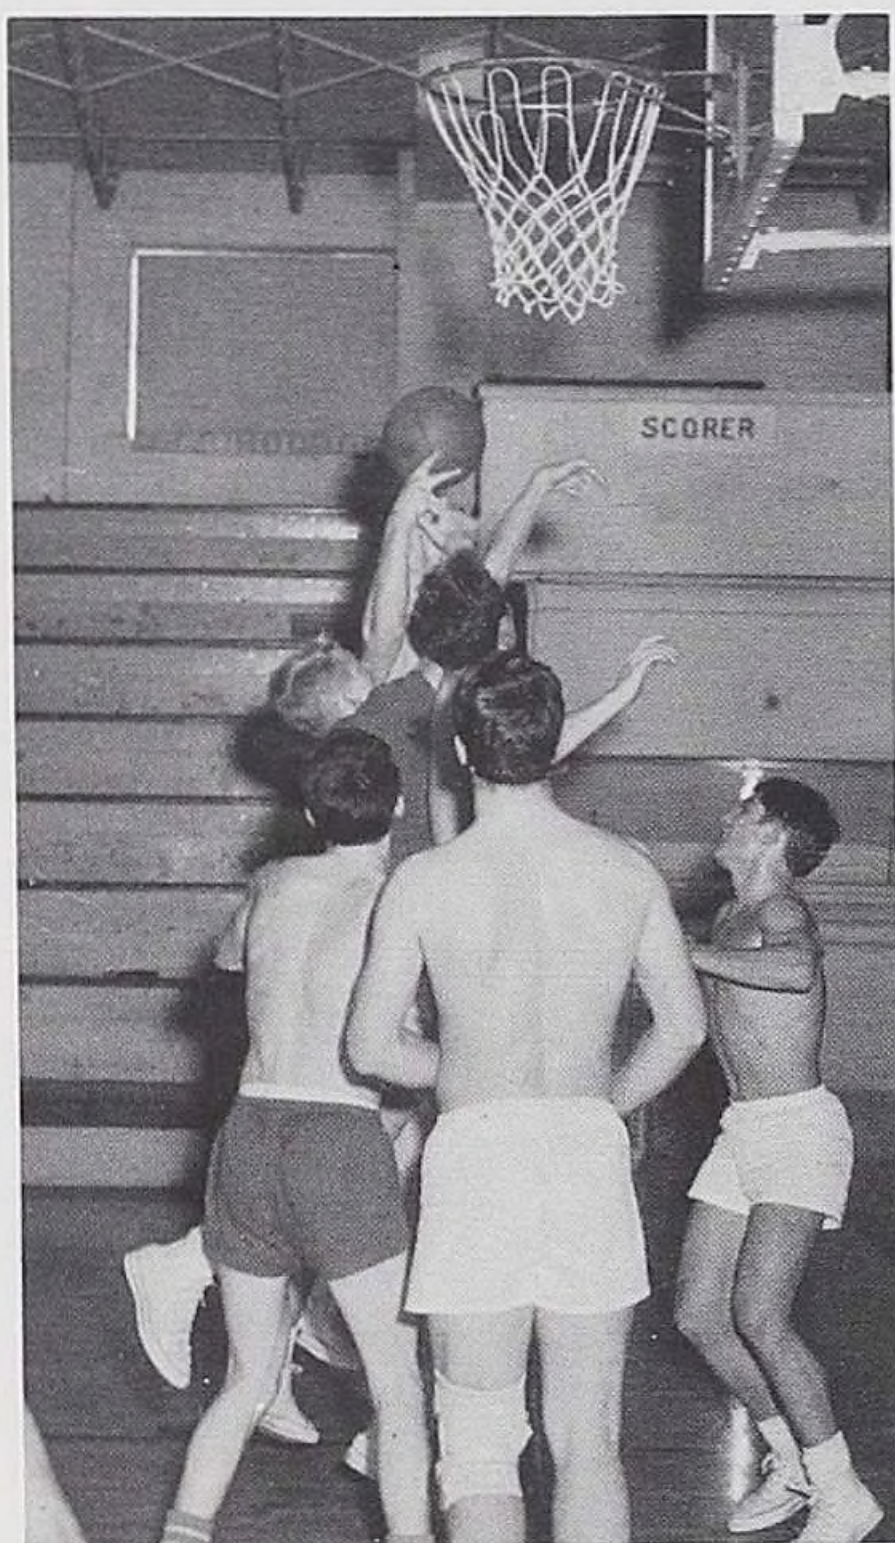

Throughout the year several early practices were held to achieve the perfection needed.

BEGIN

PRE-SCHOOL

ACTIVITIES . . .

Whether walking or riding, most students arrived by 8:00 a.m.

Activities before the first bell caused hustle among faculty and students.

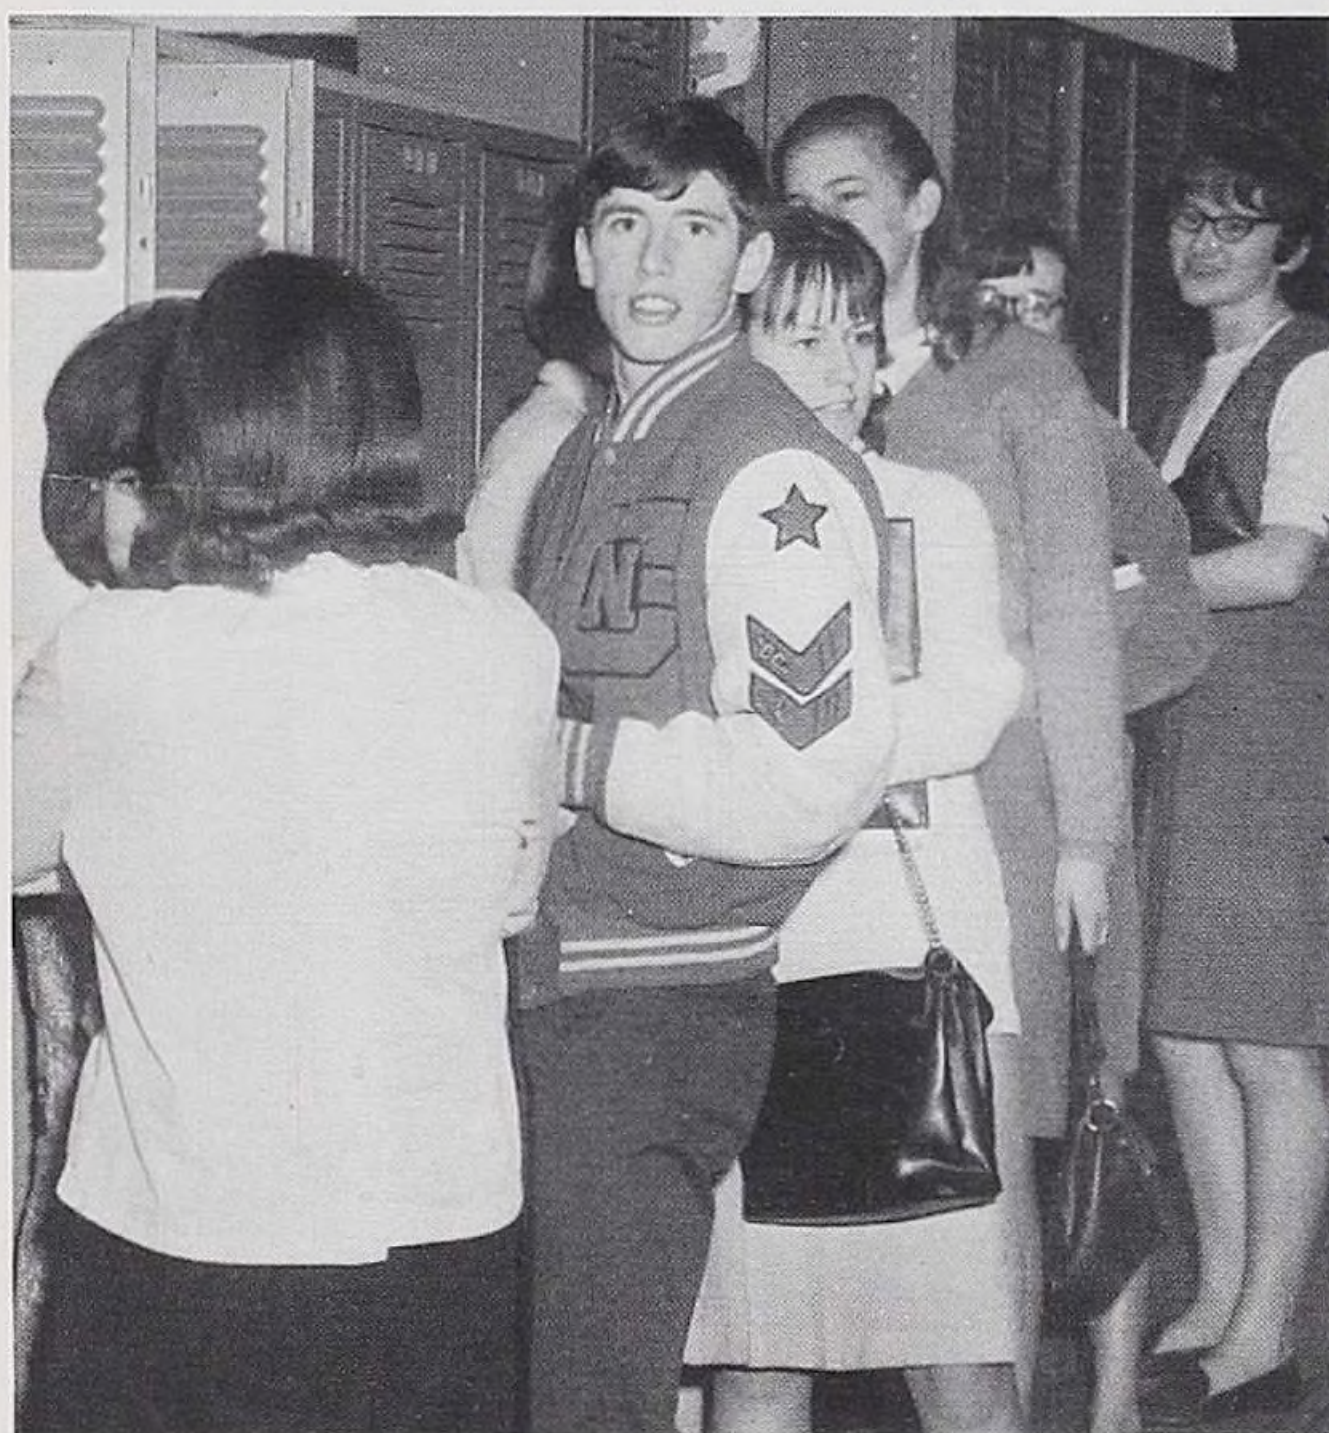

Lyn,

I remembered

You are a real cool girl that is a lot of fun to be around. Don't forget every-thing we've done together. Remember when we were giants jumping the Great Lakes. Now that sounds pretty silly but then it was fun. I hope all your future desires come true. You deserve it. Good Luck with everything you do.

... FIND MUCH CONFUSION

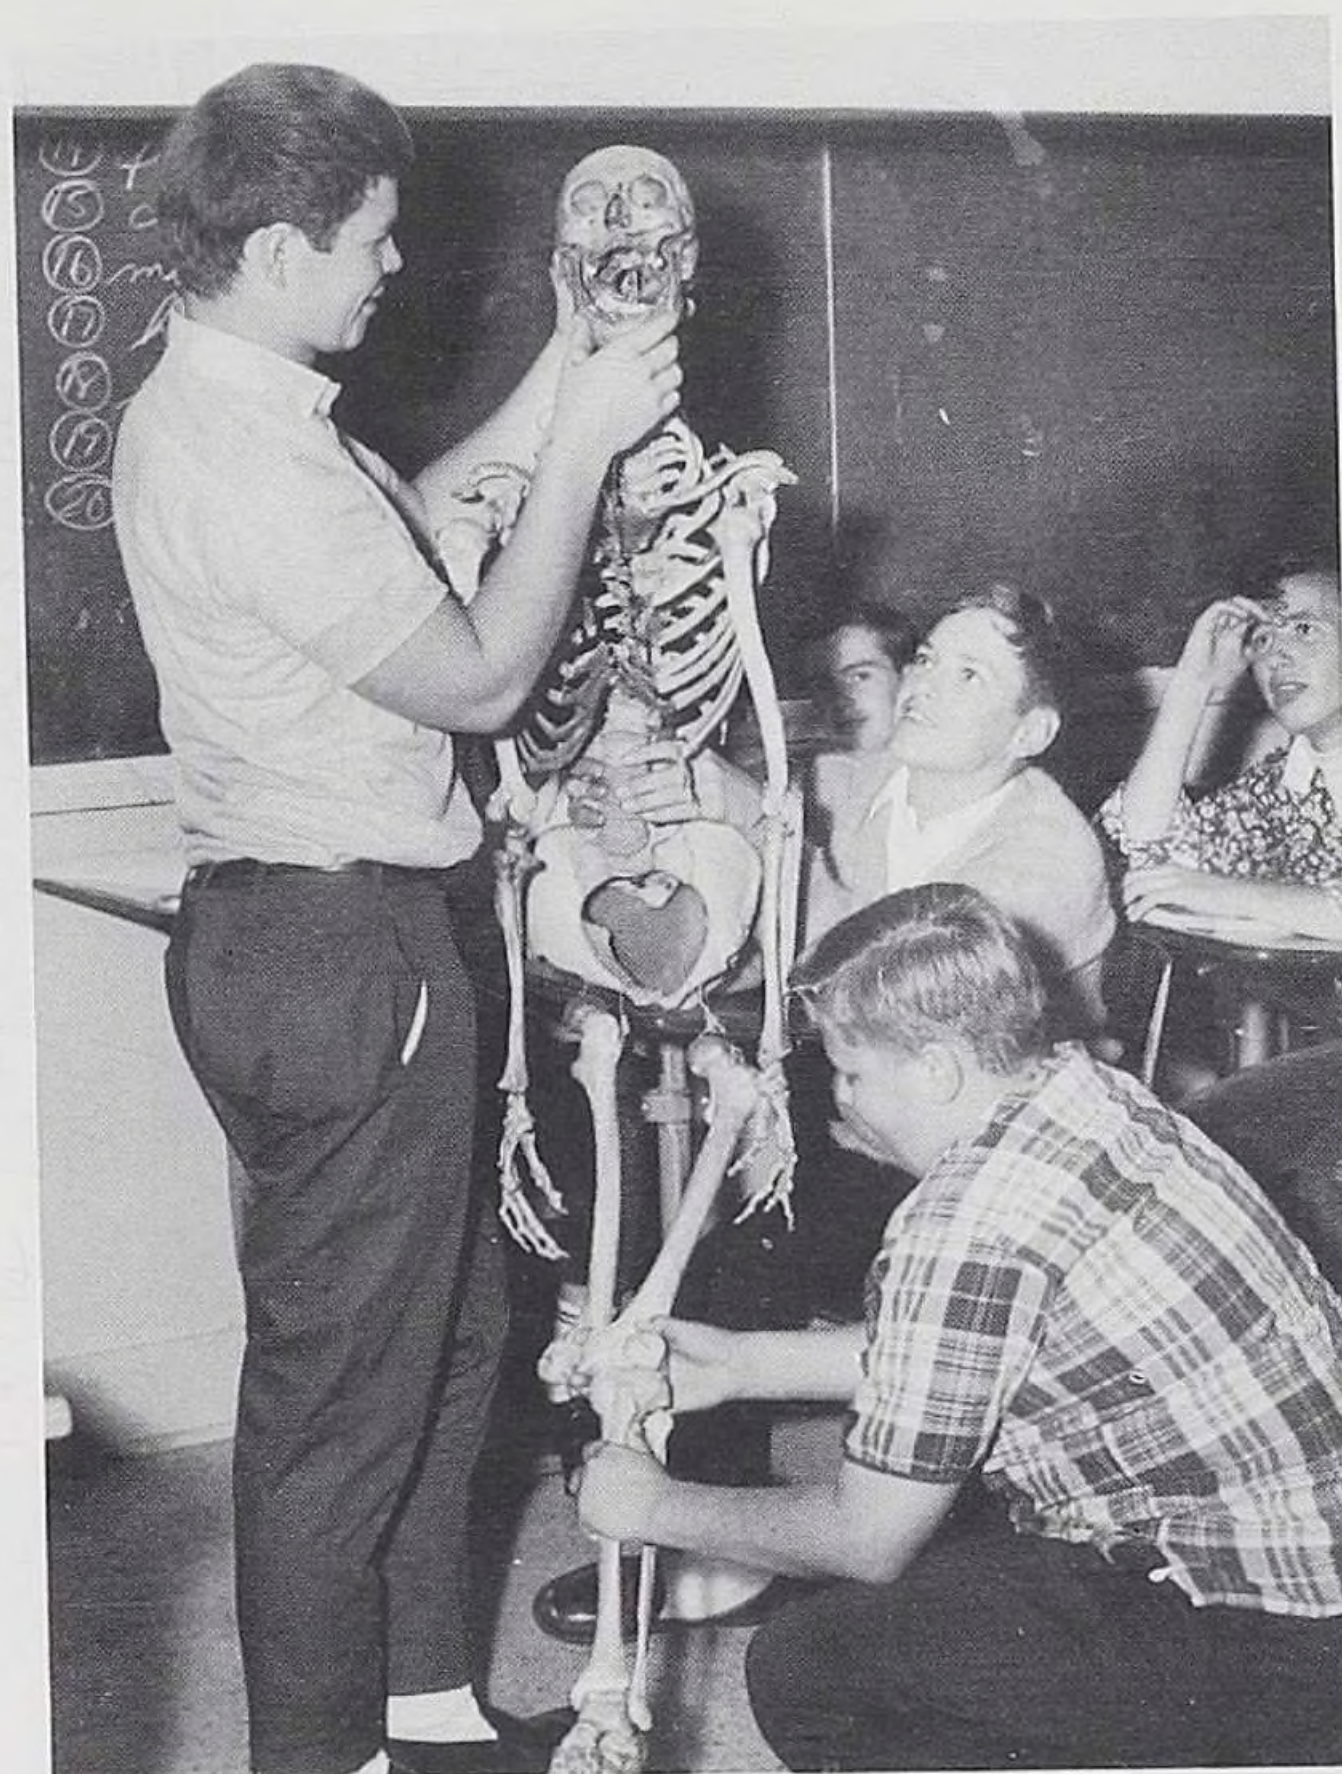

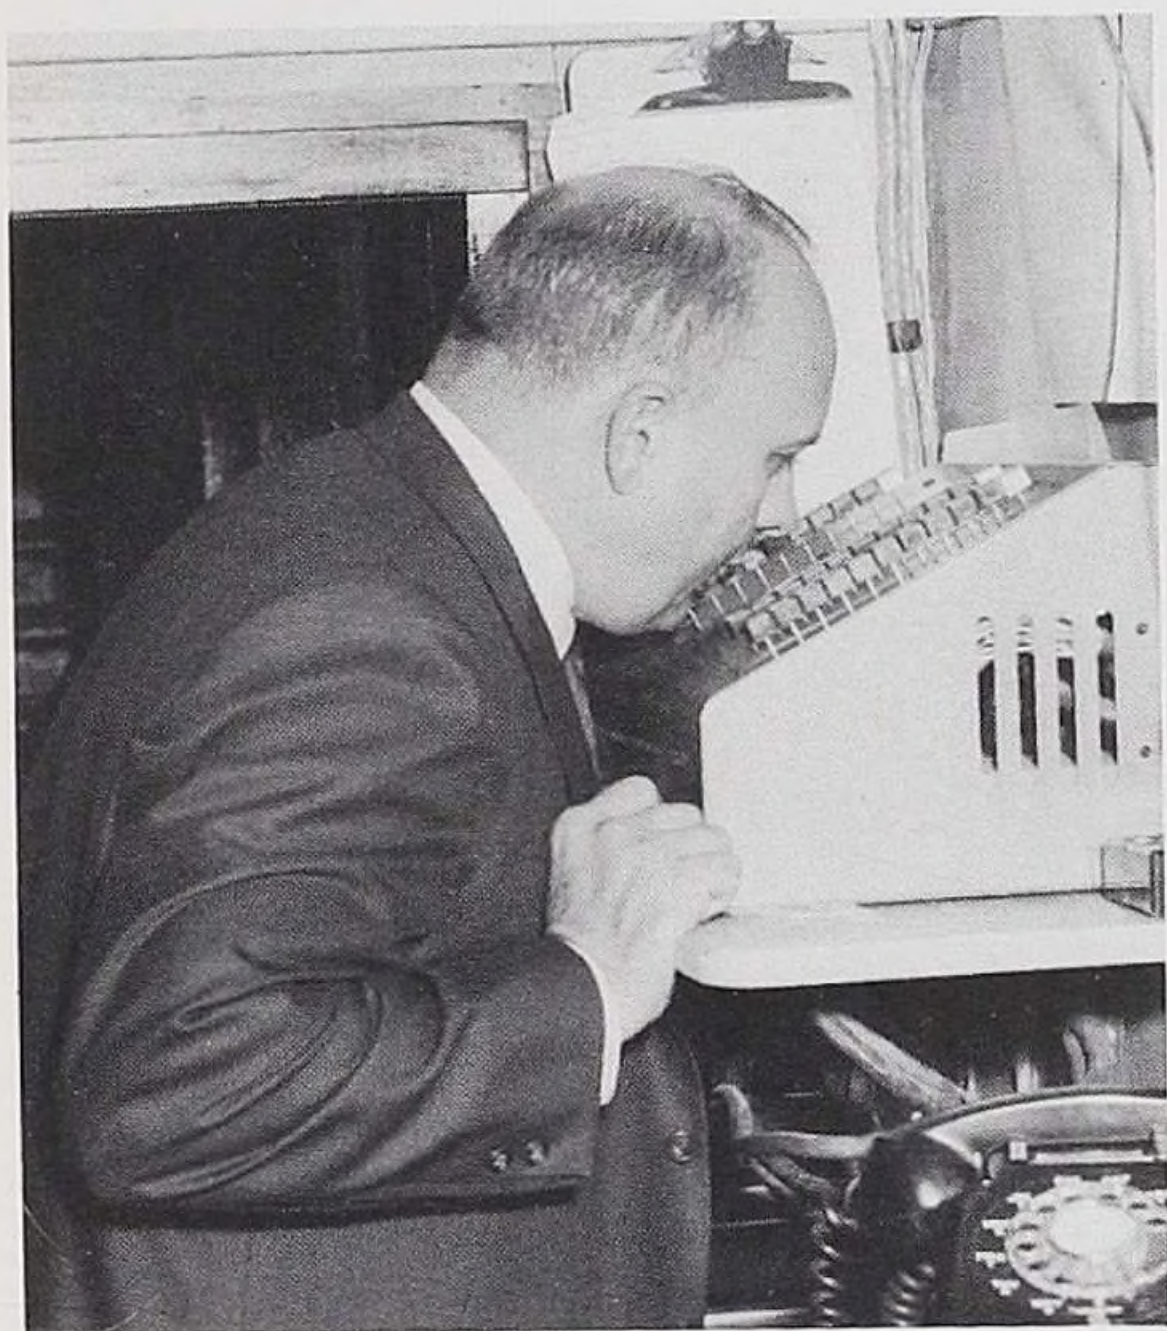

EVERY HOUR OF THE DAY . . .

"Attention please," starts a day filled with discovery, whether it be in health, foreign language, or physical education.

Dan Engel's discovery was that there is another means of escape from study hall, besides the doors.

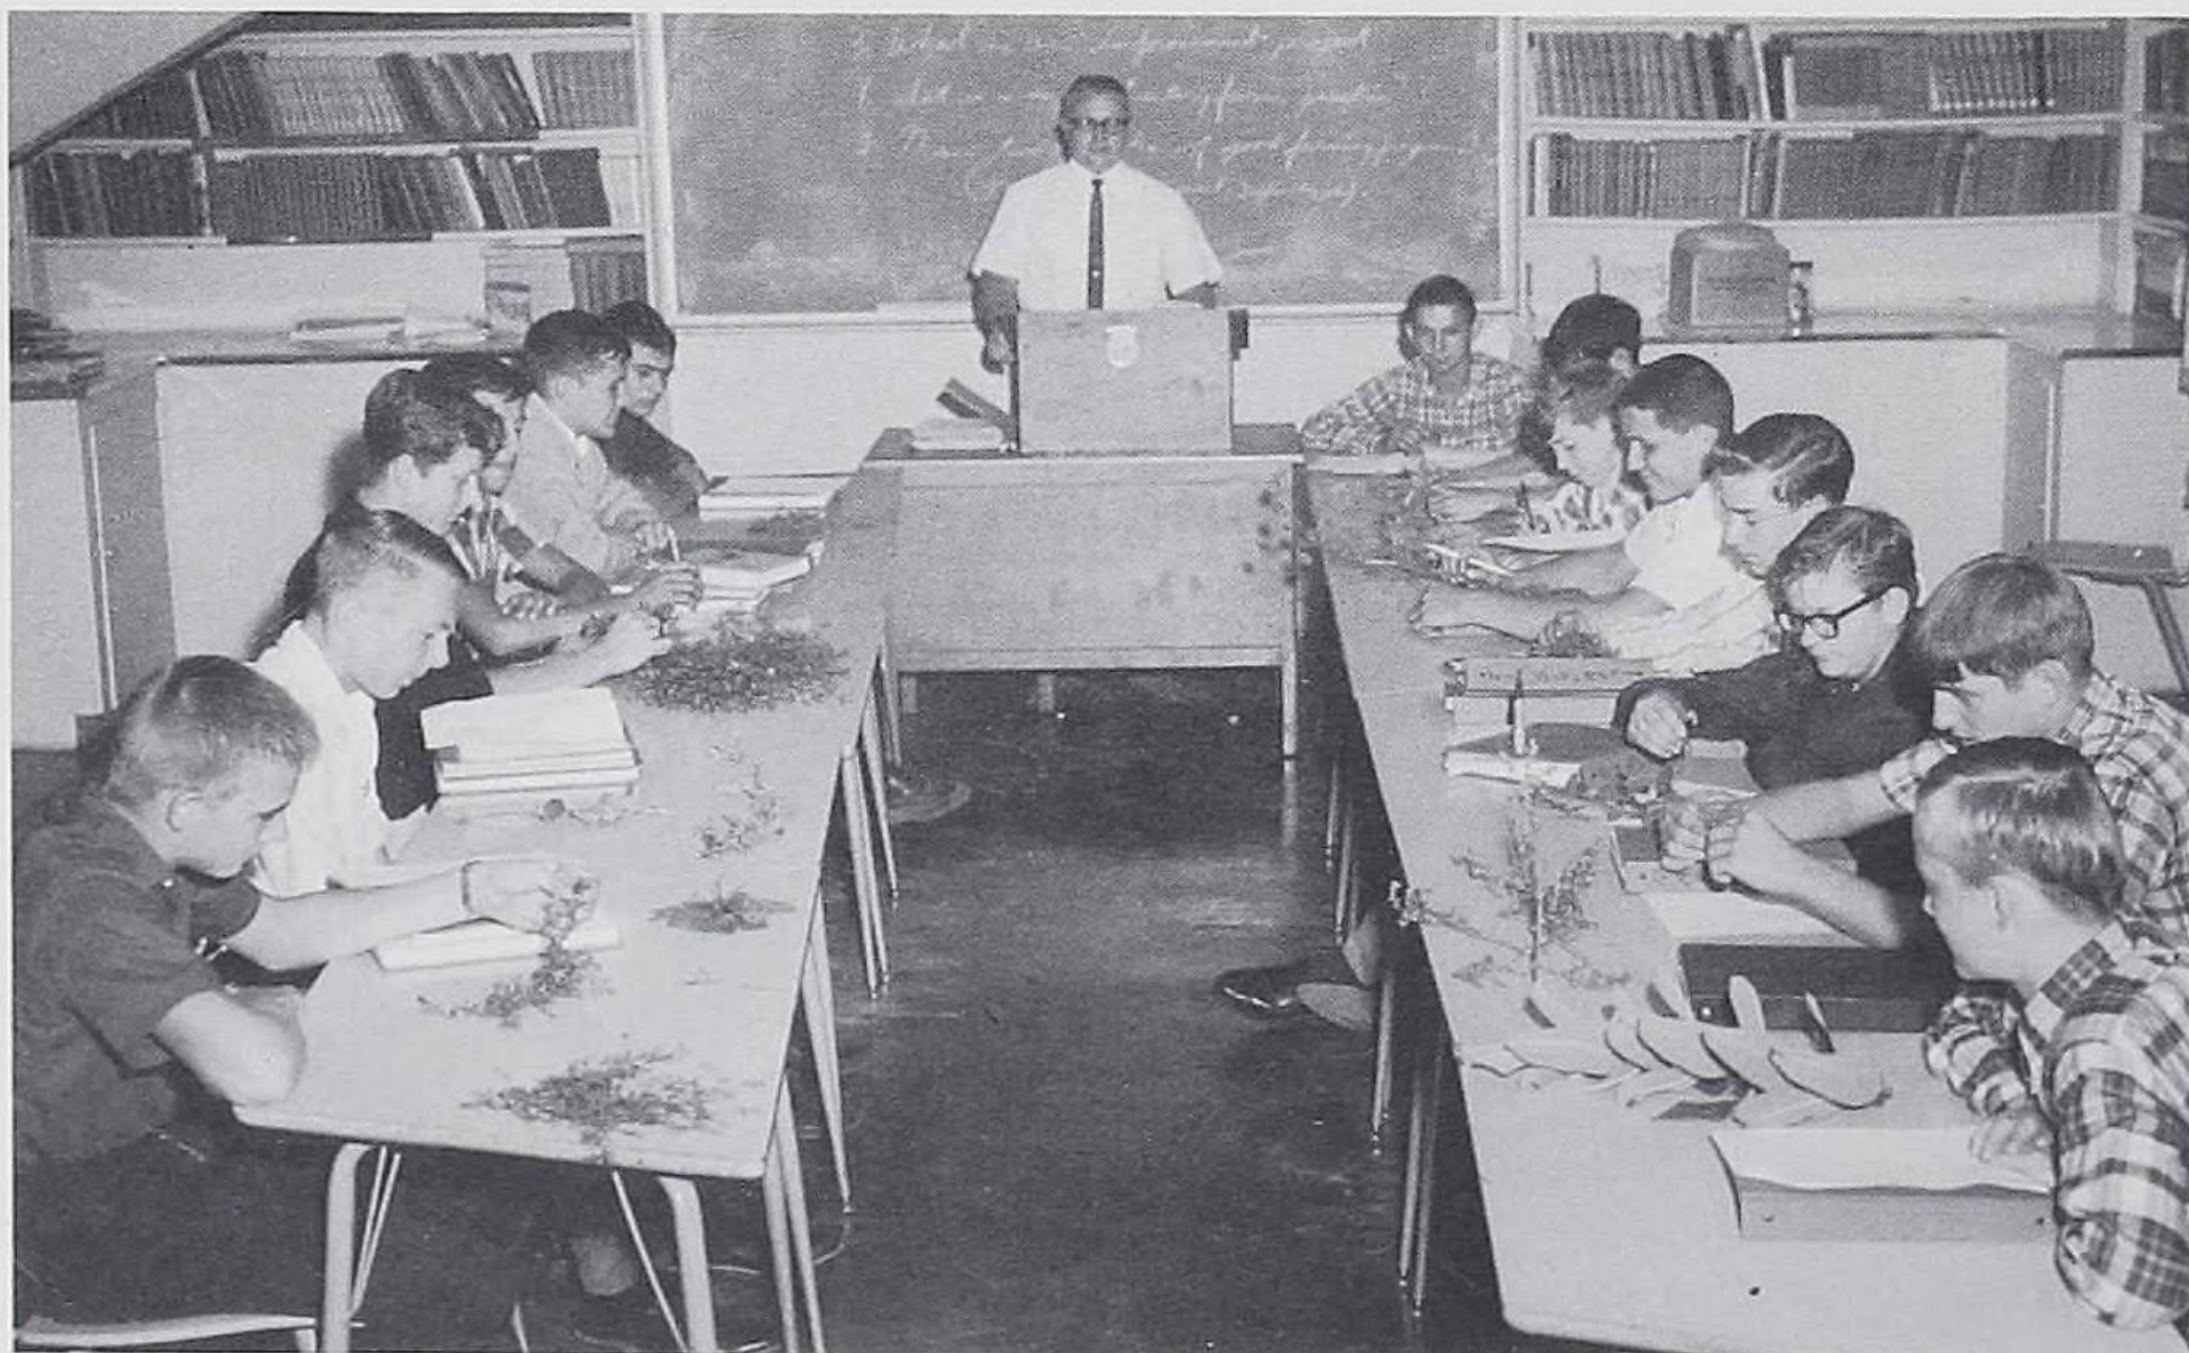

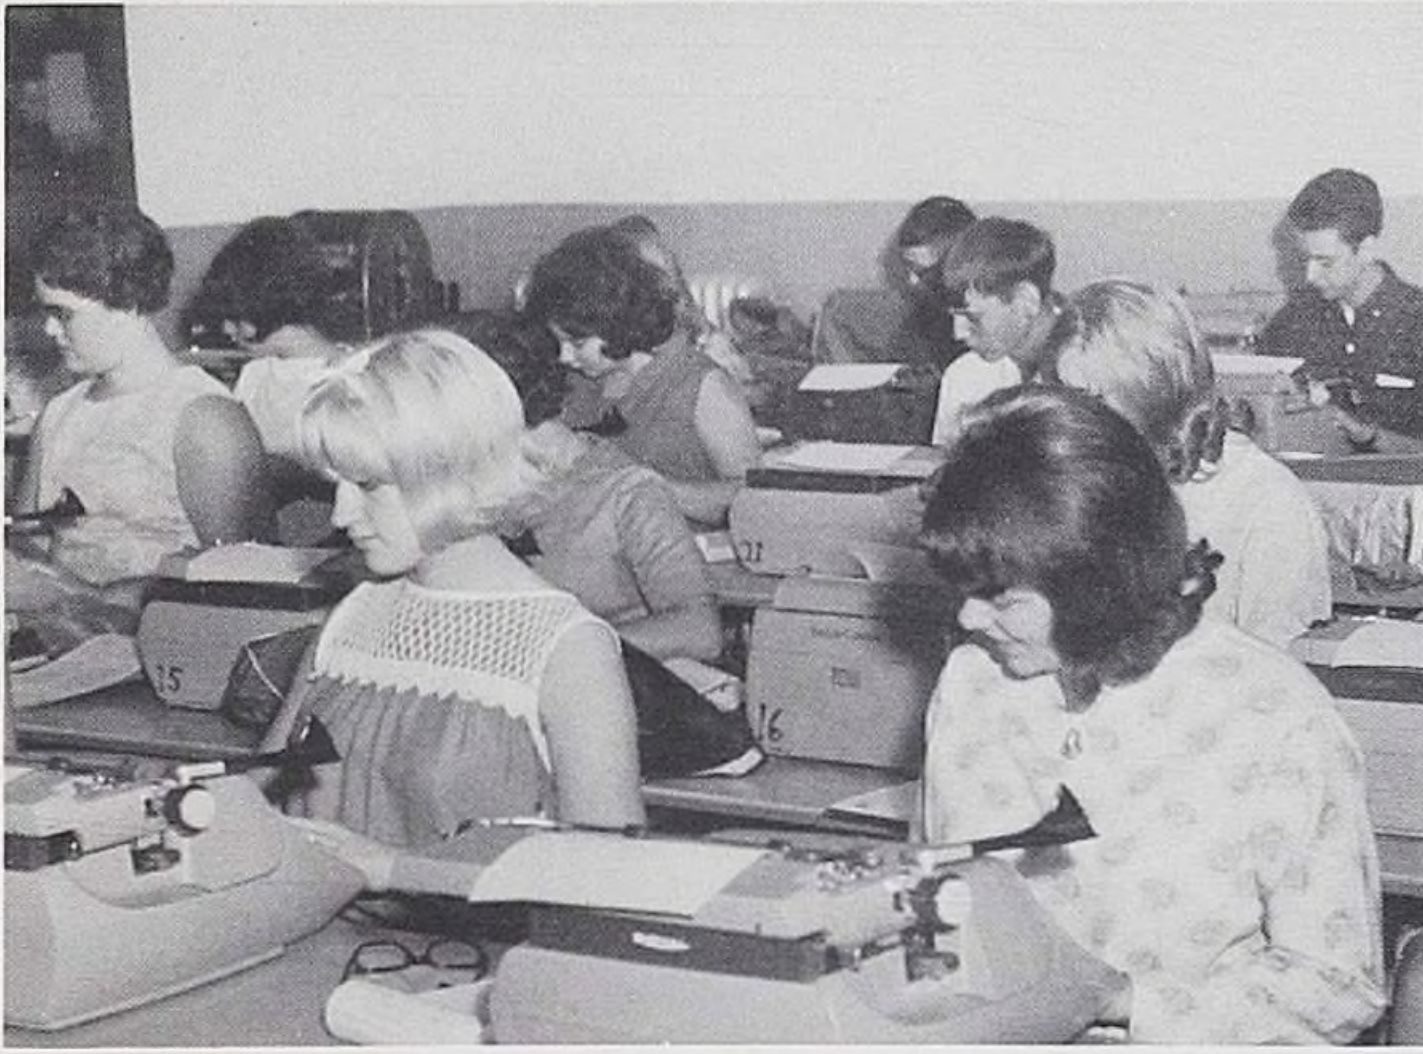

PROVIDES . . .

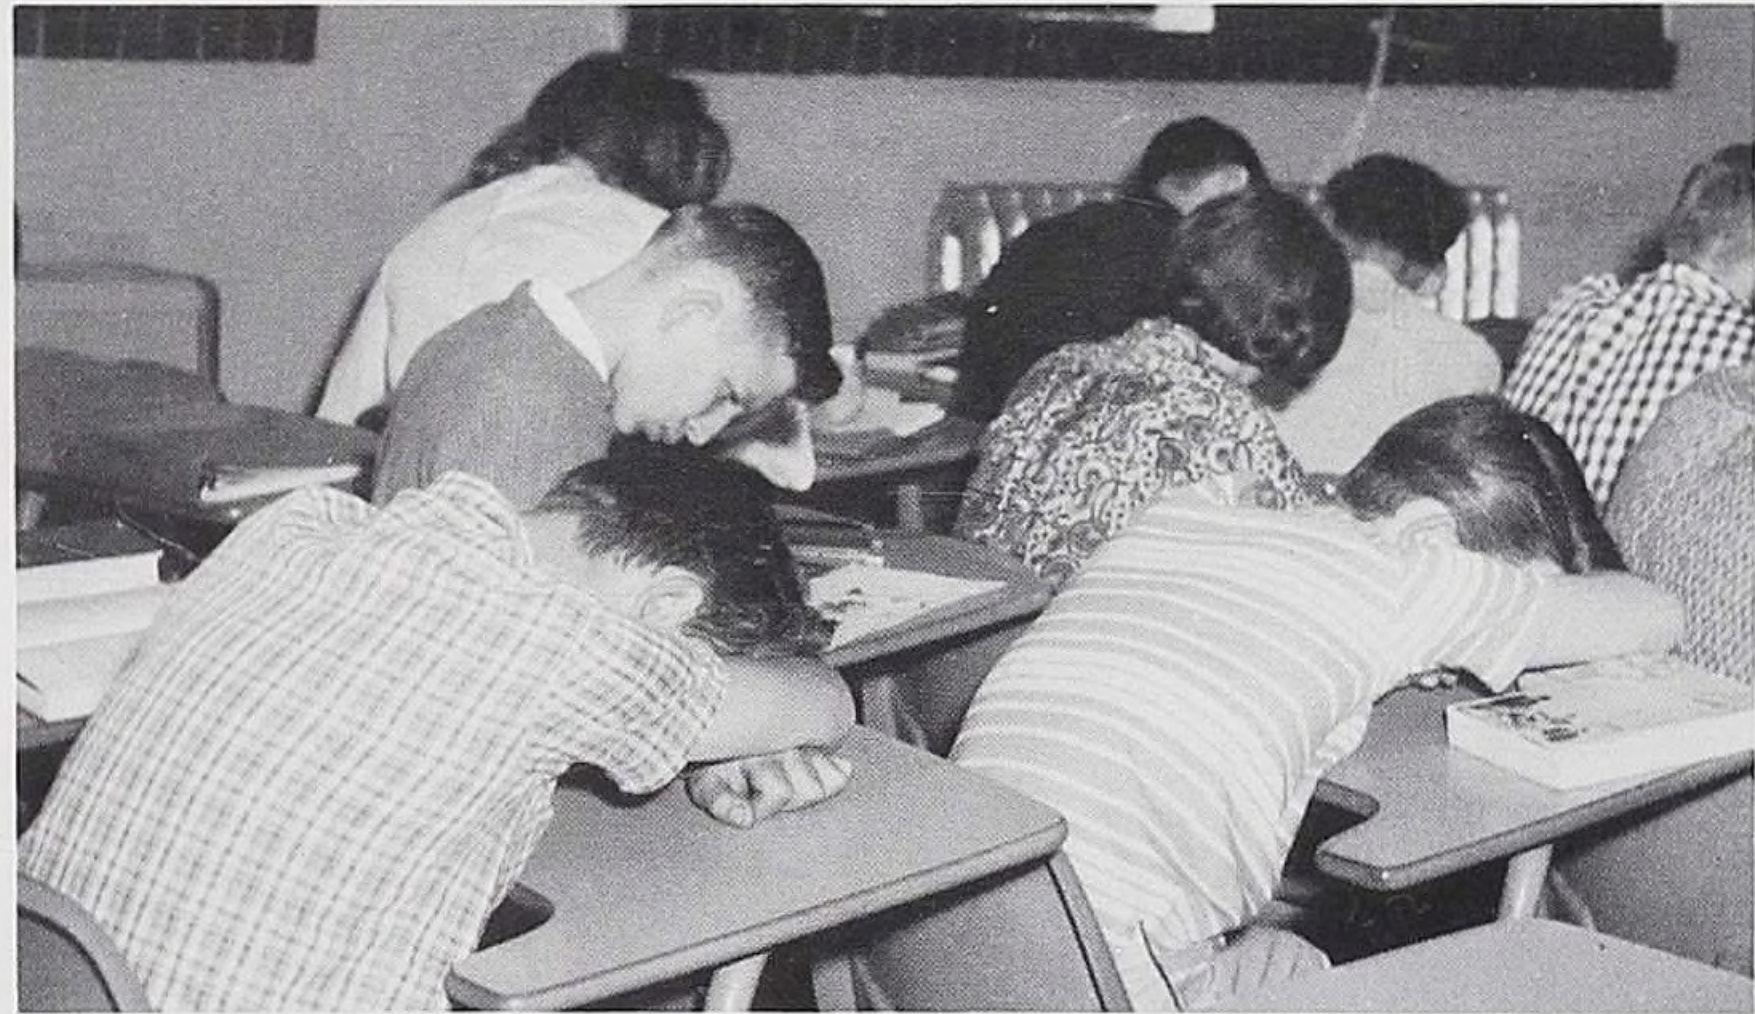

FAMILIAR . . .

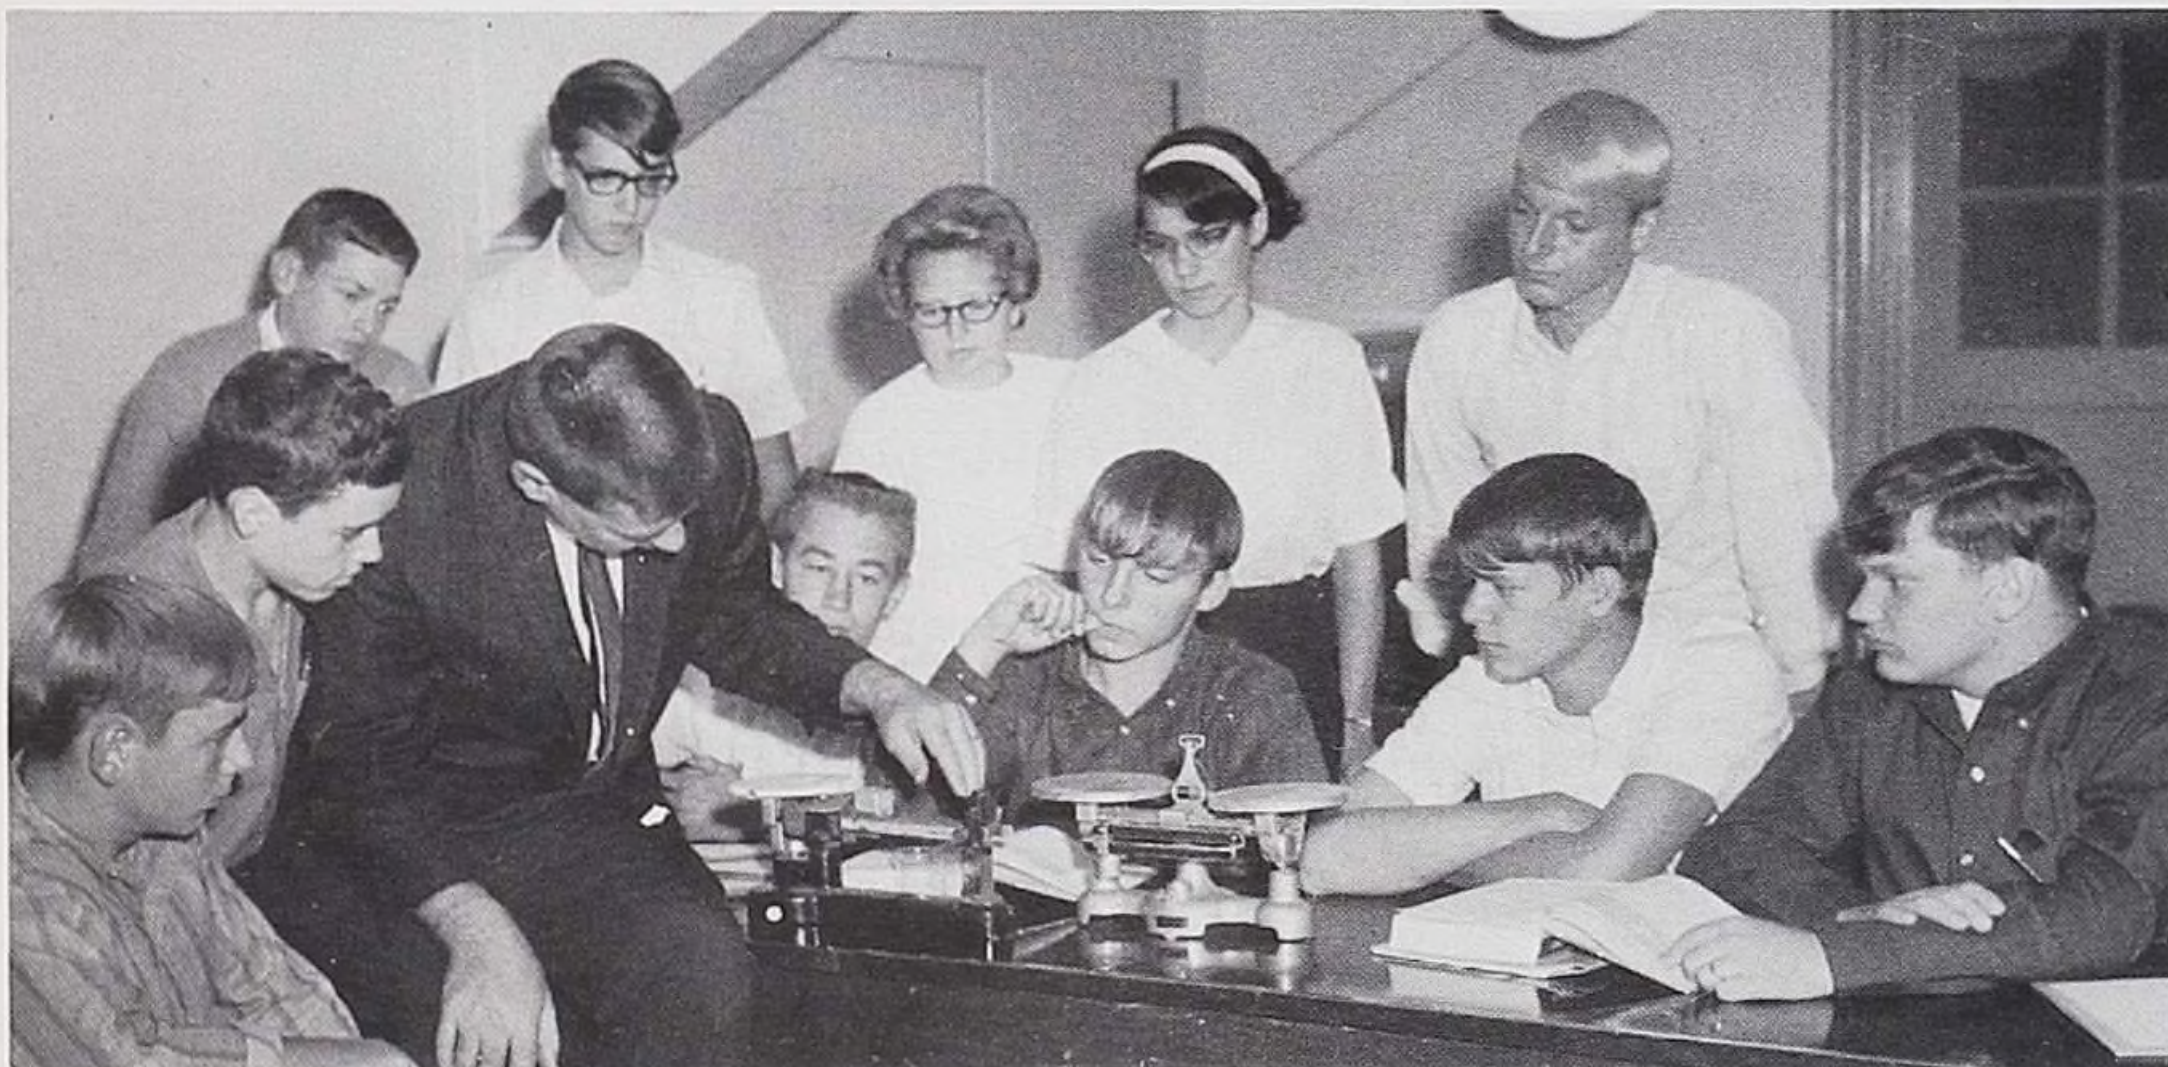

Mental cultivation produces rewards
—or in some cases exhaustion.

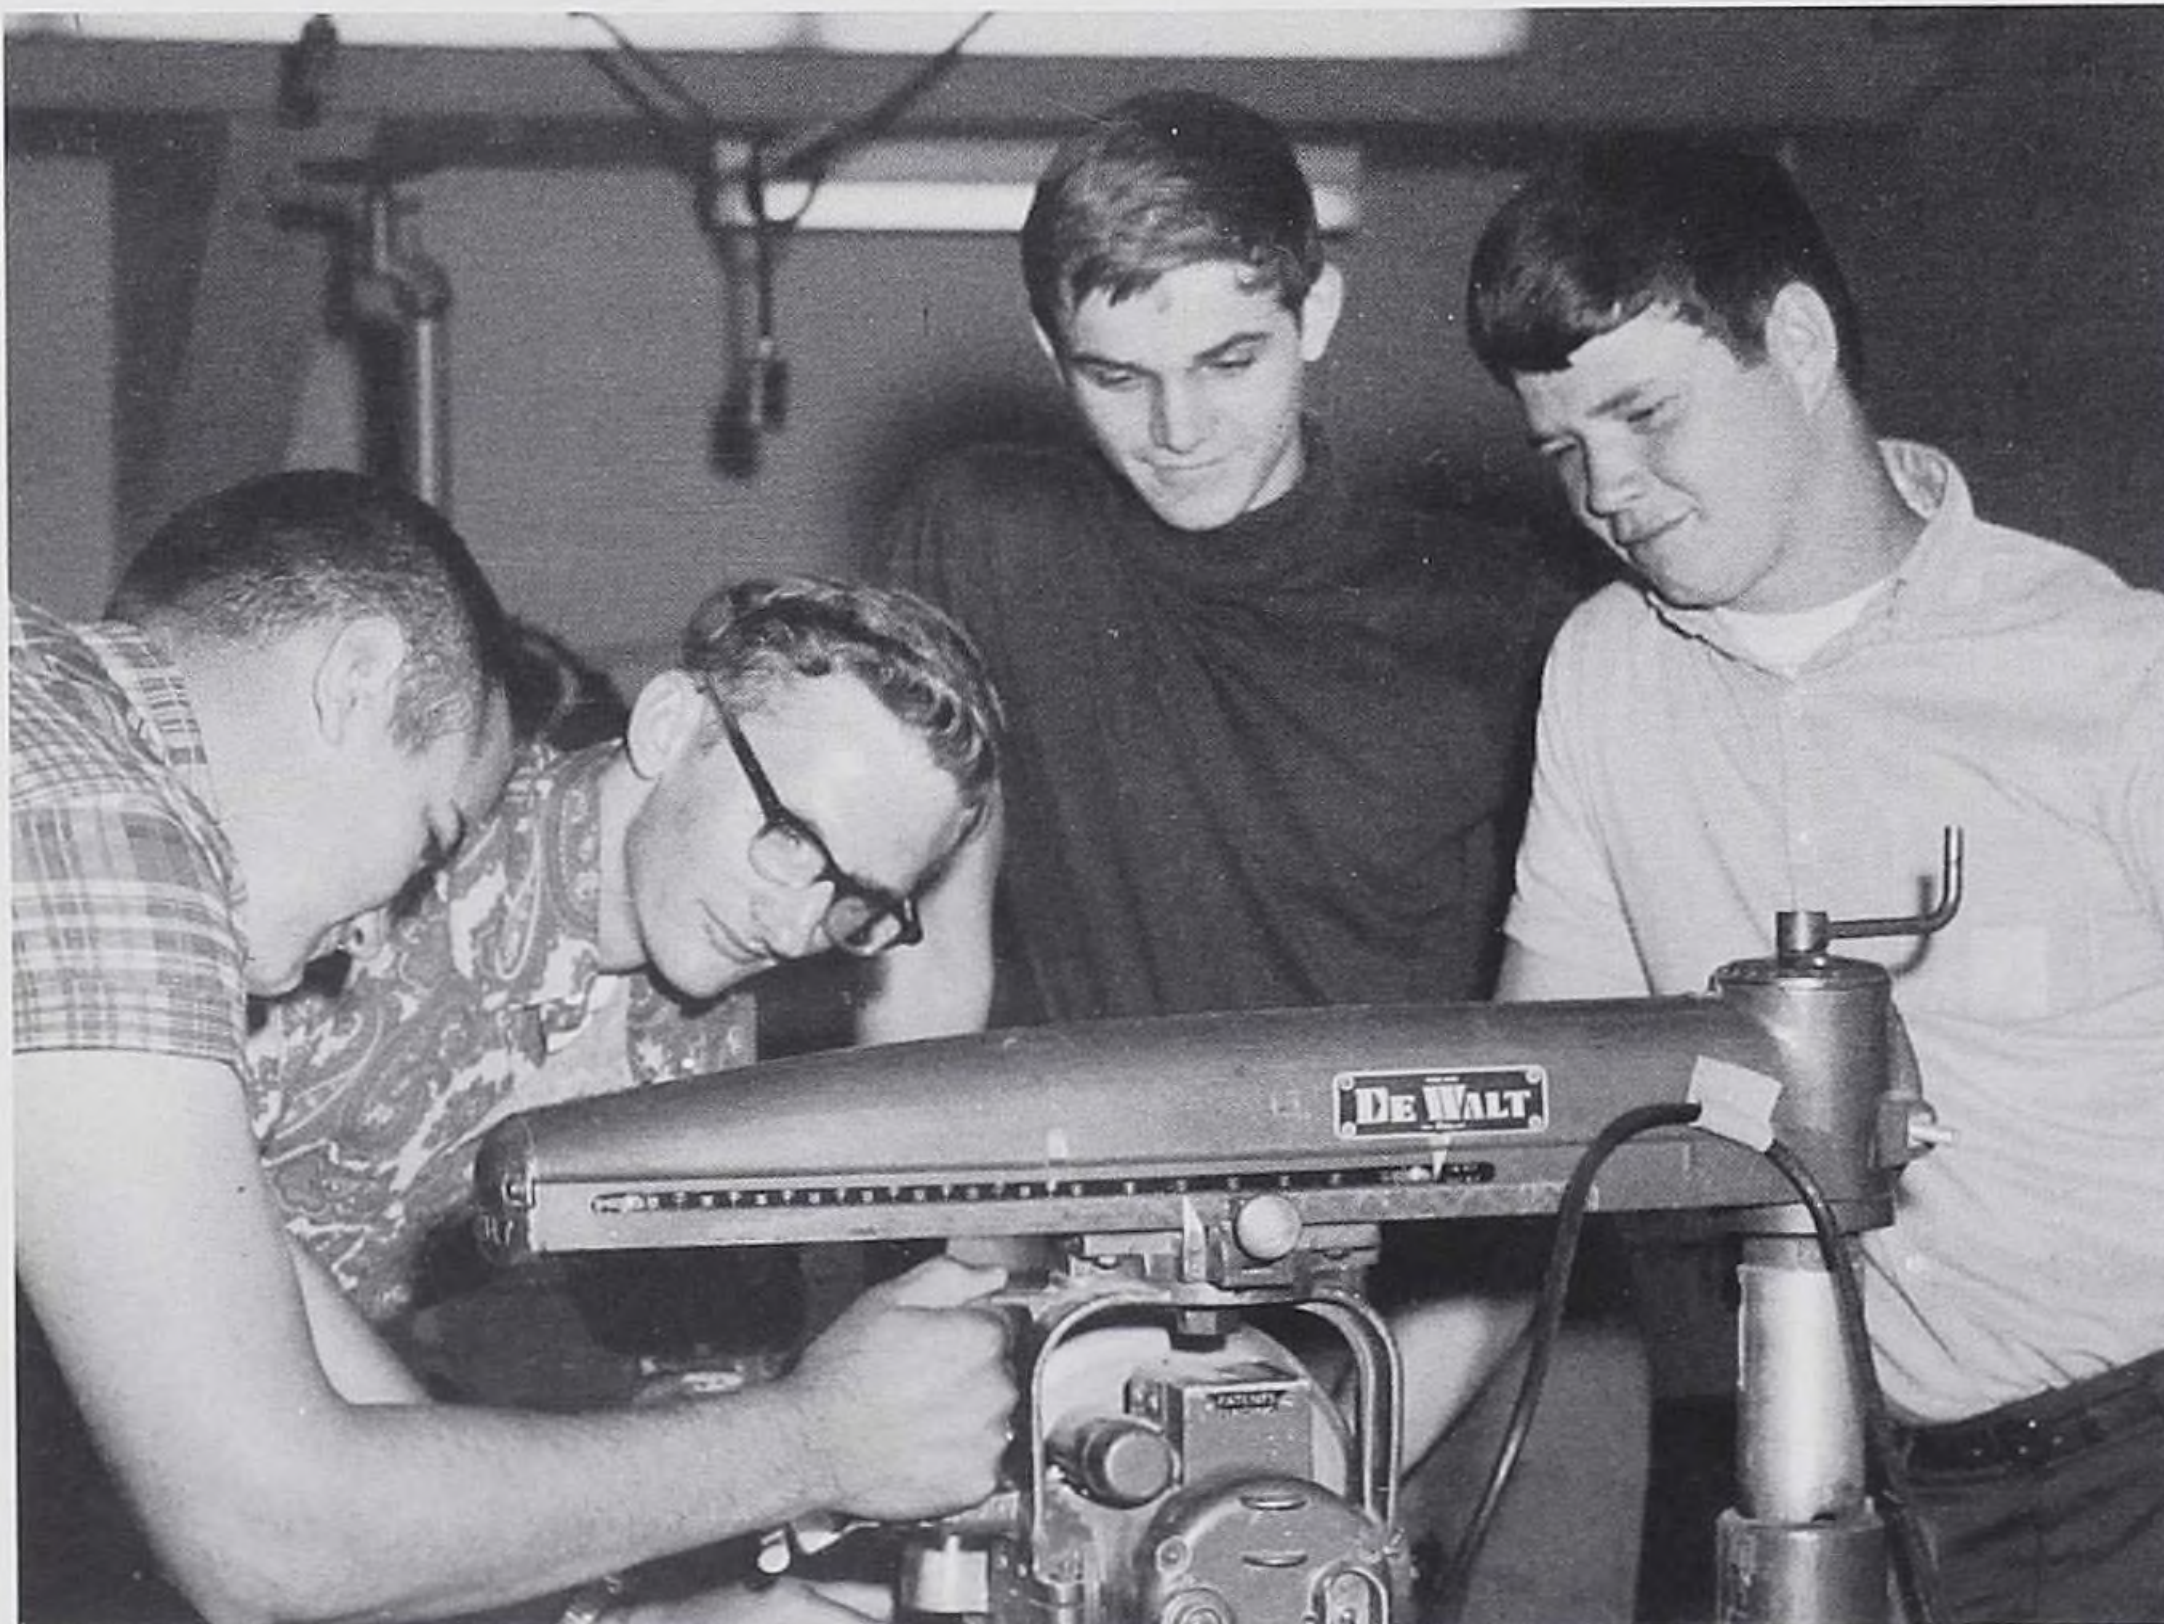

COMICAL . . .

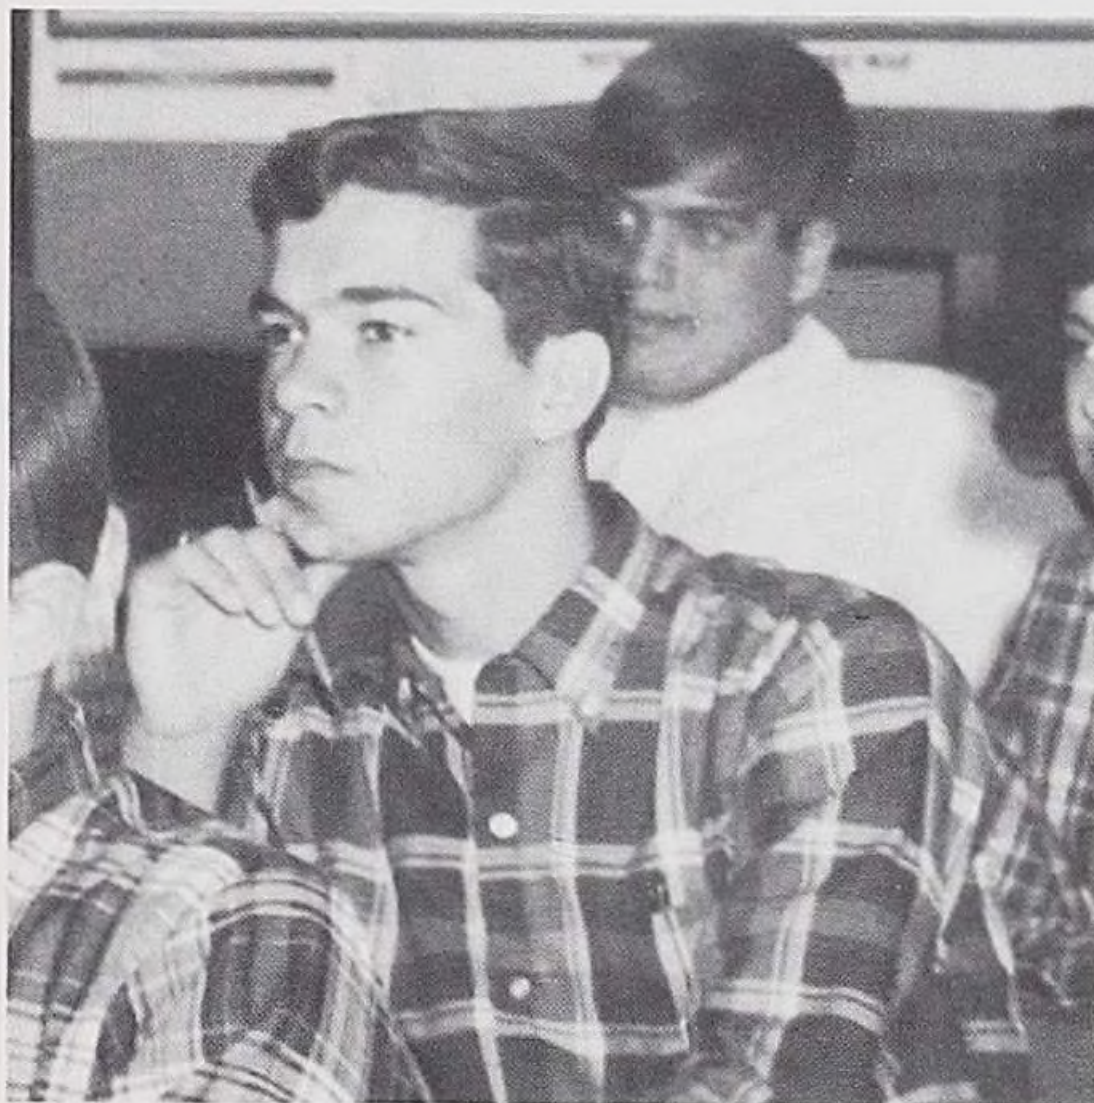

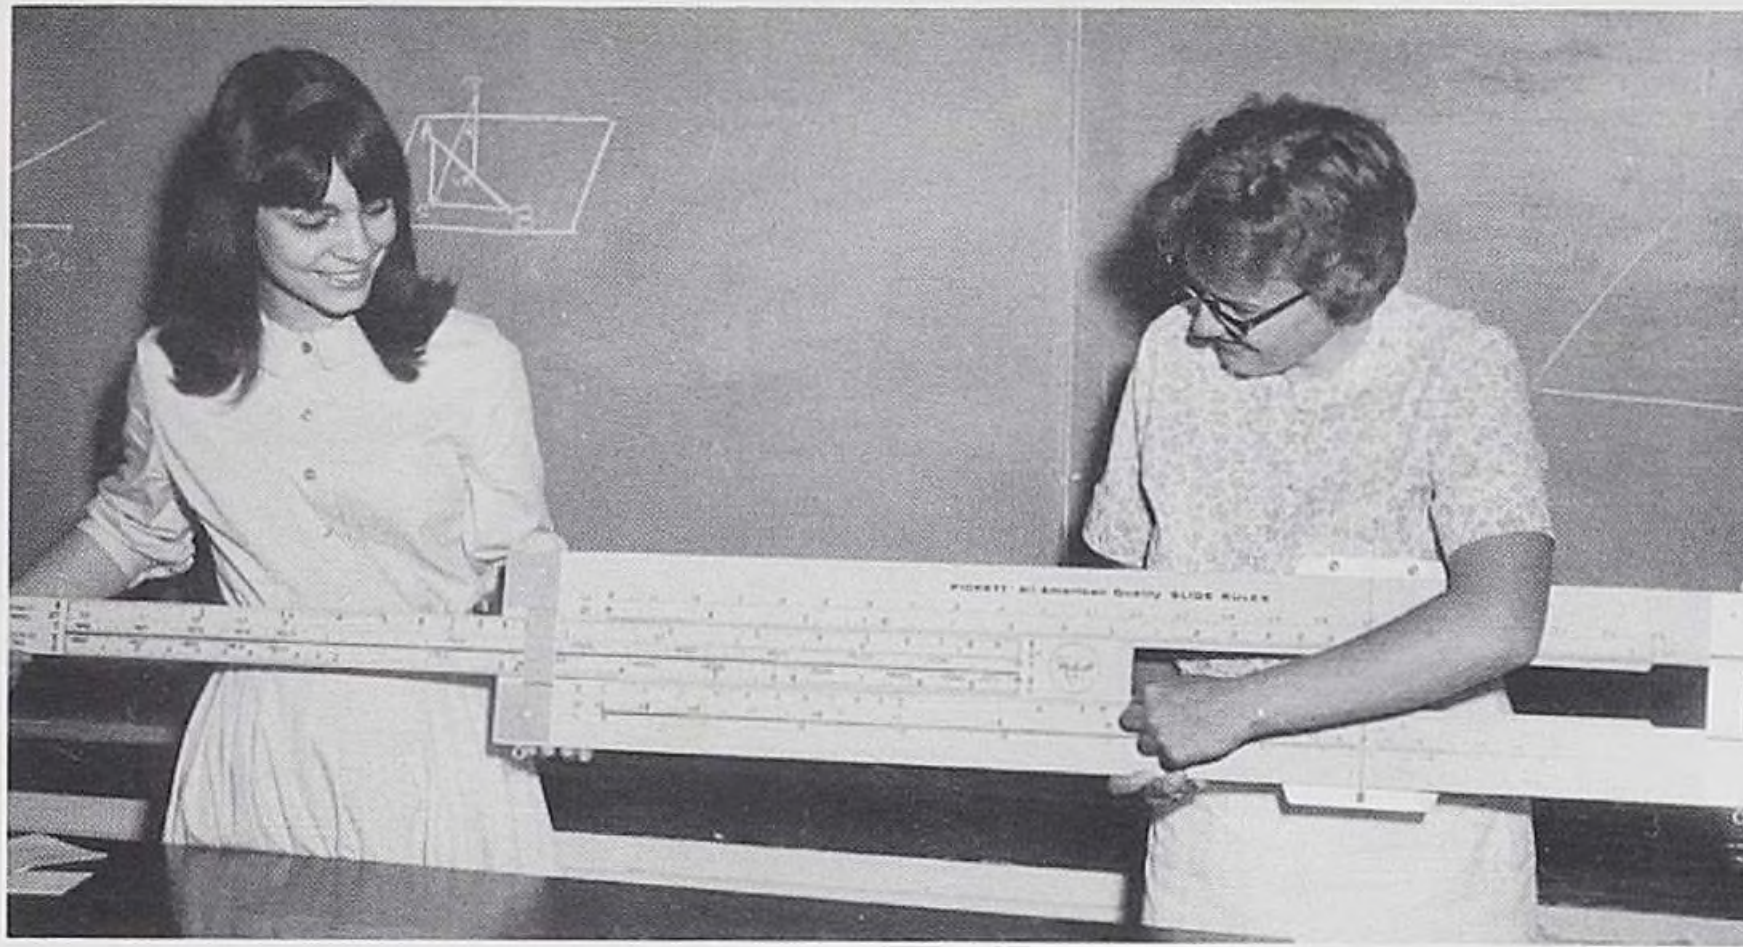

Many classes required careful thought, concentration, and technical accuracy. However, at times we became too involved in our thoughts; and as a result, accidents occurred.

THOUGHTFUL . . .

MOMENTS.

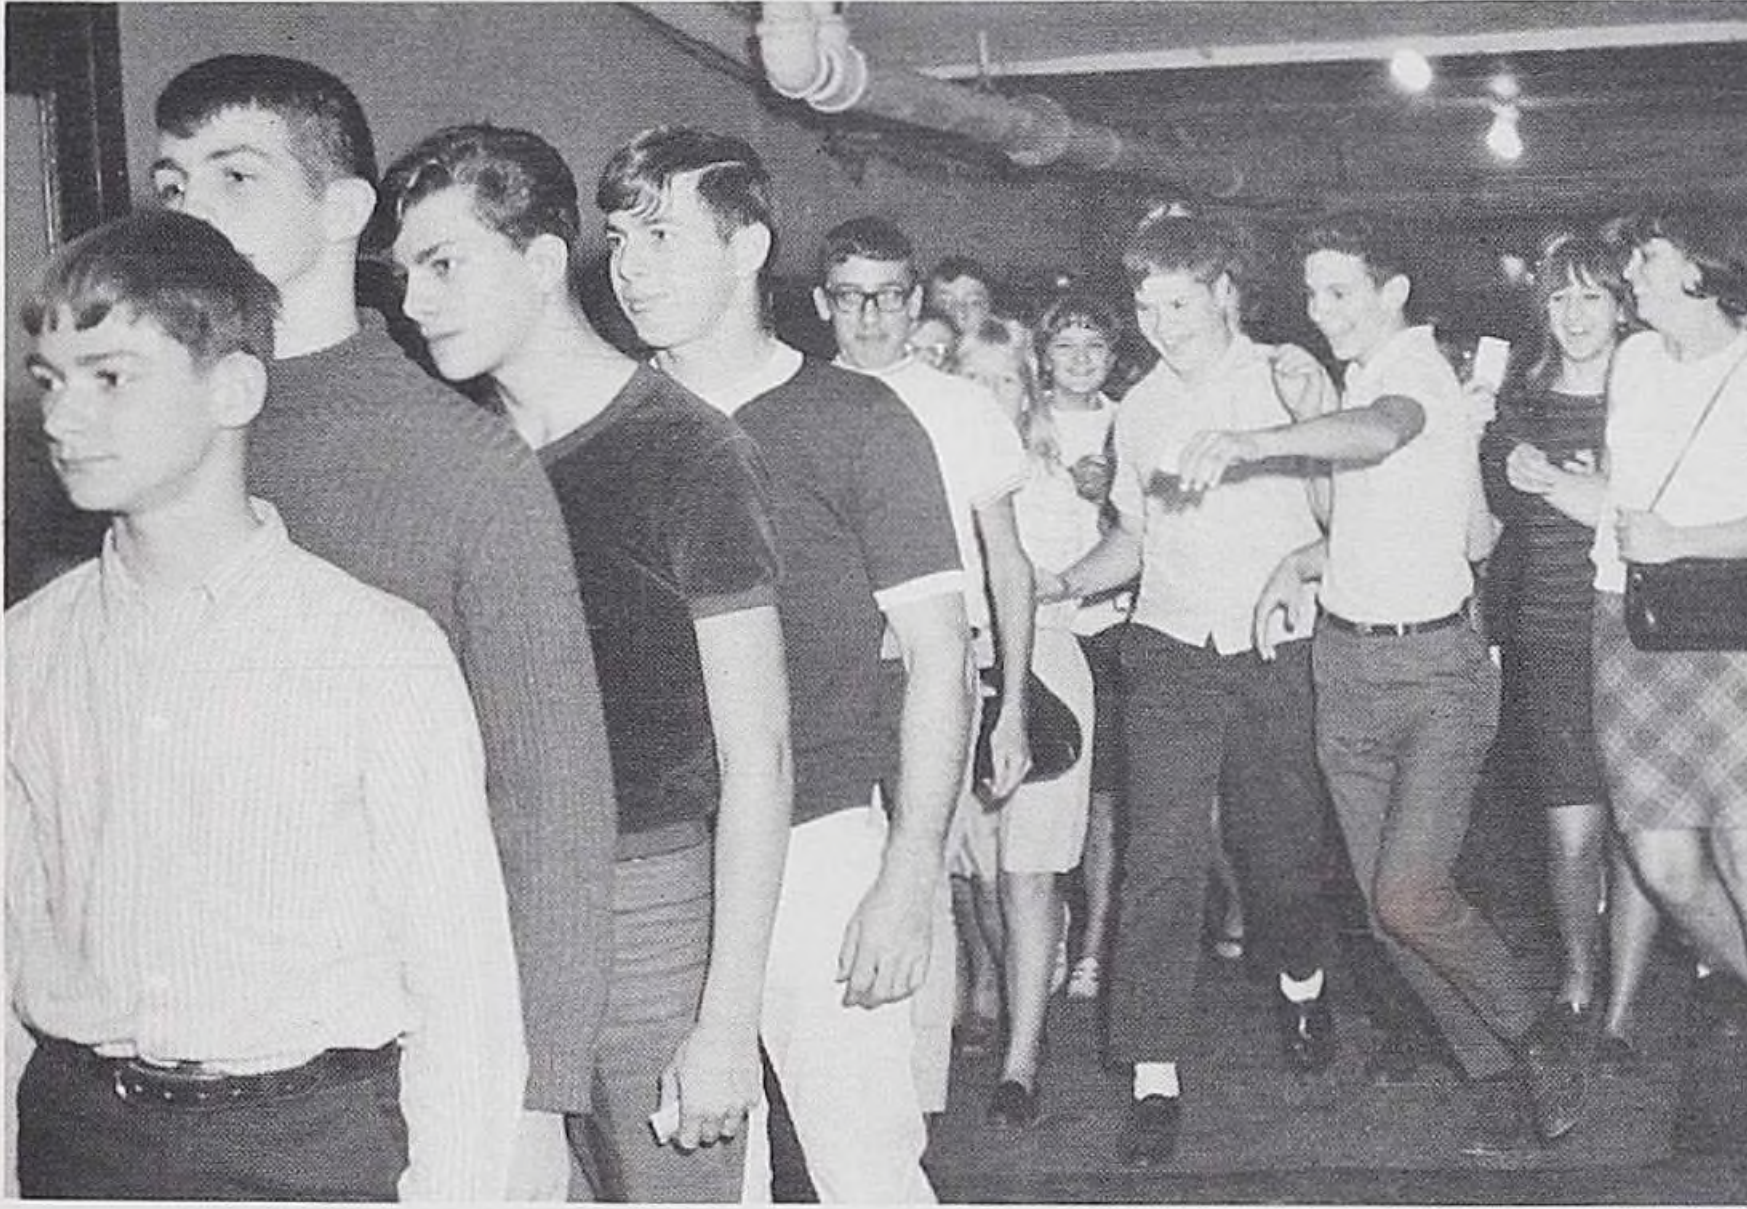

Some students prefer a nourishing lunch while others choose sweet snacks.

HUNGRY TEEN-AGERS GO FOR

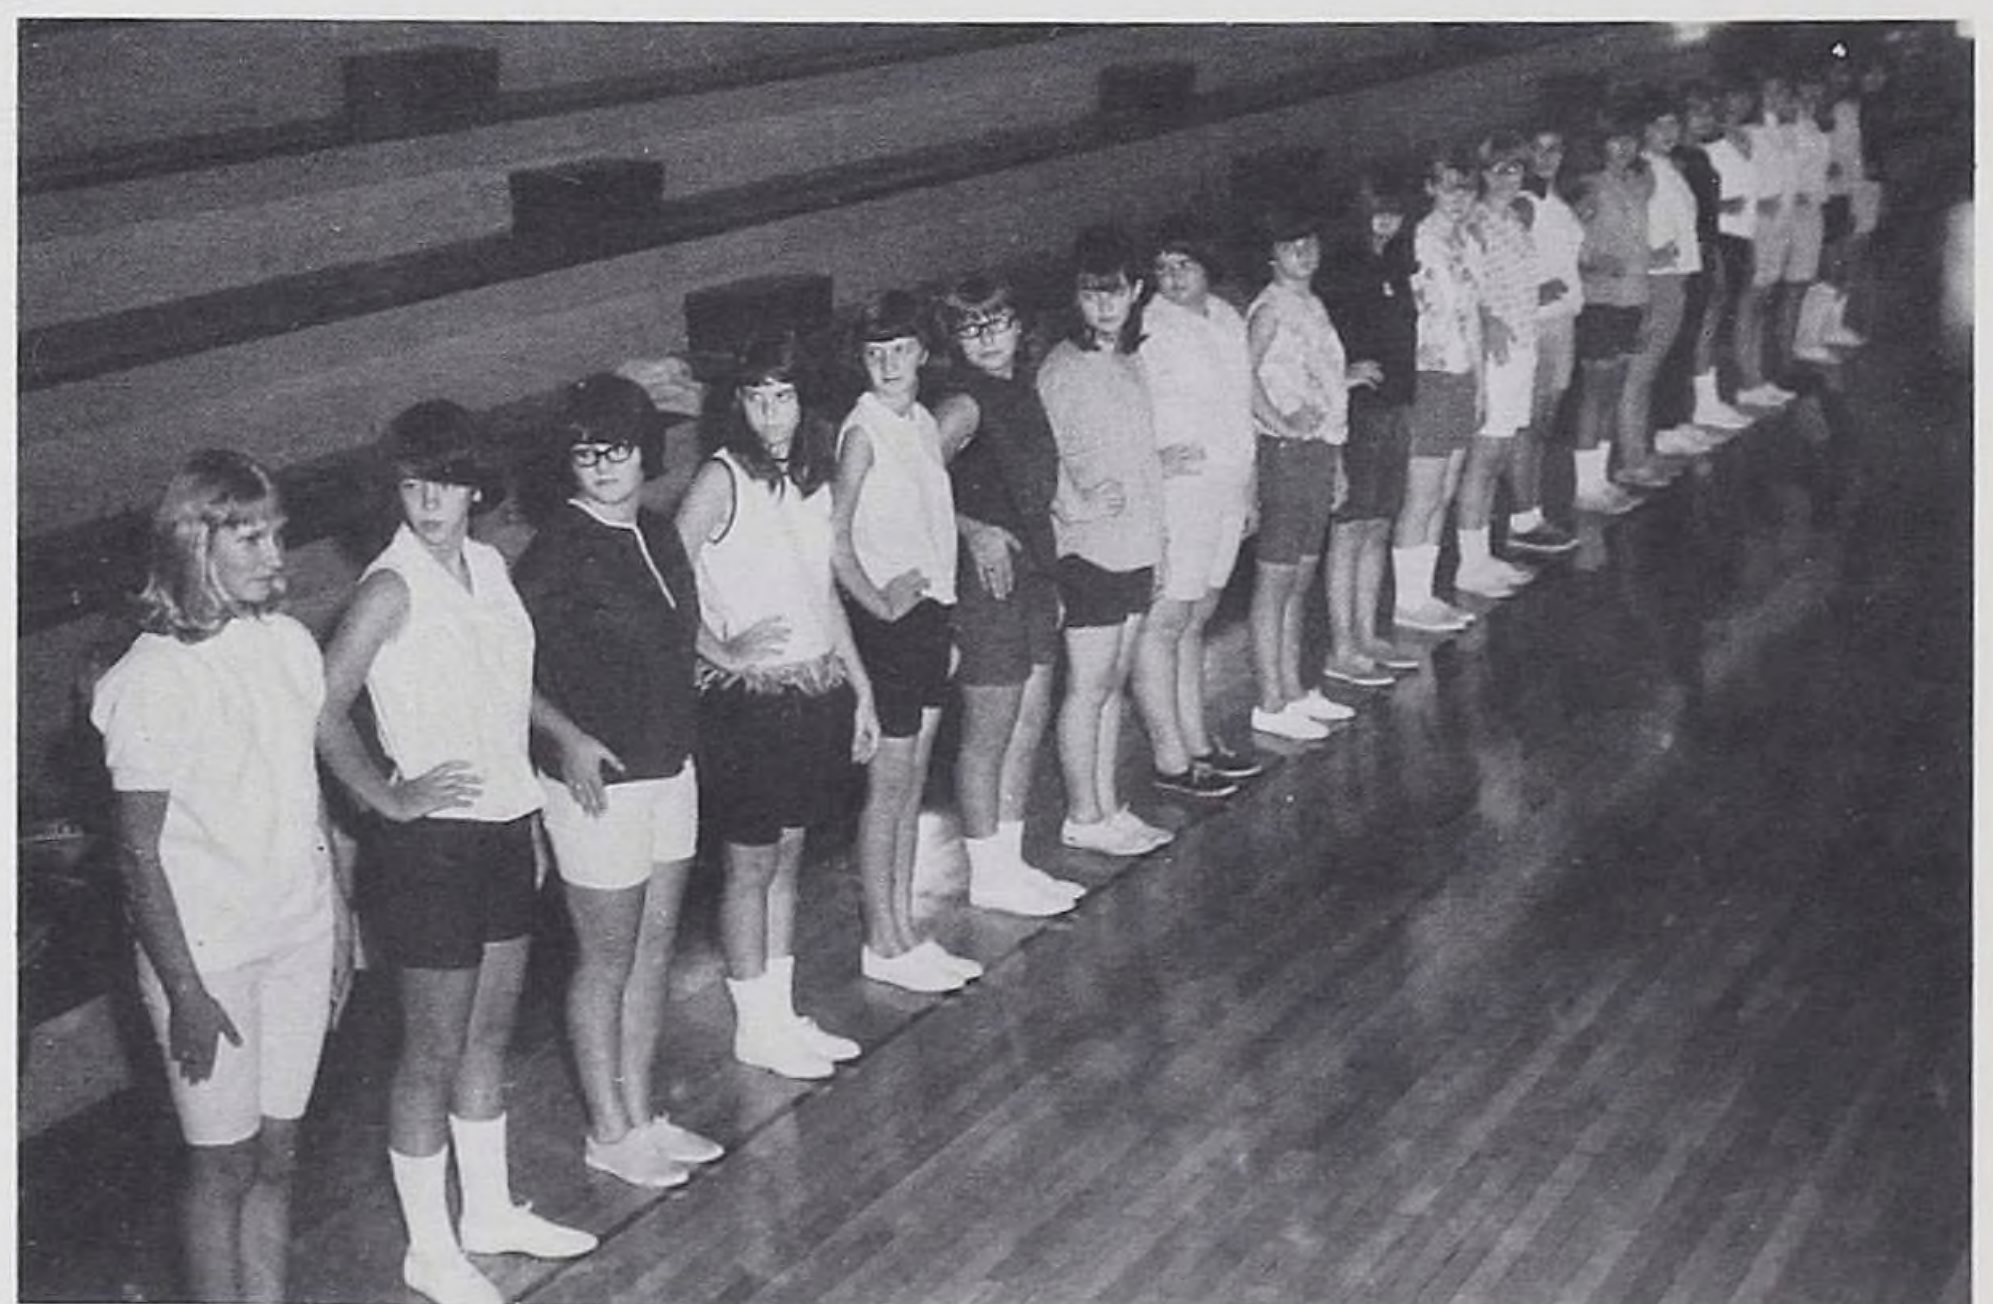

FOOD

"Afternoon Monotony" was temporarily cured at times by a dose of fresh air, exercise, pranks, and programs.

Even Mr. Miller takes time out from his busy schedule to be honored by the Latin Club.

AFTERNOON HOURS COMBINE ORDINARY

 Isn't it a 'kick'!? We've had so many ASSEMBLIES . . .

PROJECTS . . .

The successful all-school play, the induction of new NHS members, and the Hi-Y Christmas program provided interest for students.

Enthusiasm was displayed by the Hi-Y food basket collection, yearbook sales, ring purchases and other projects.

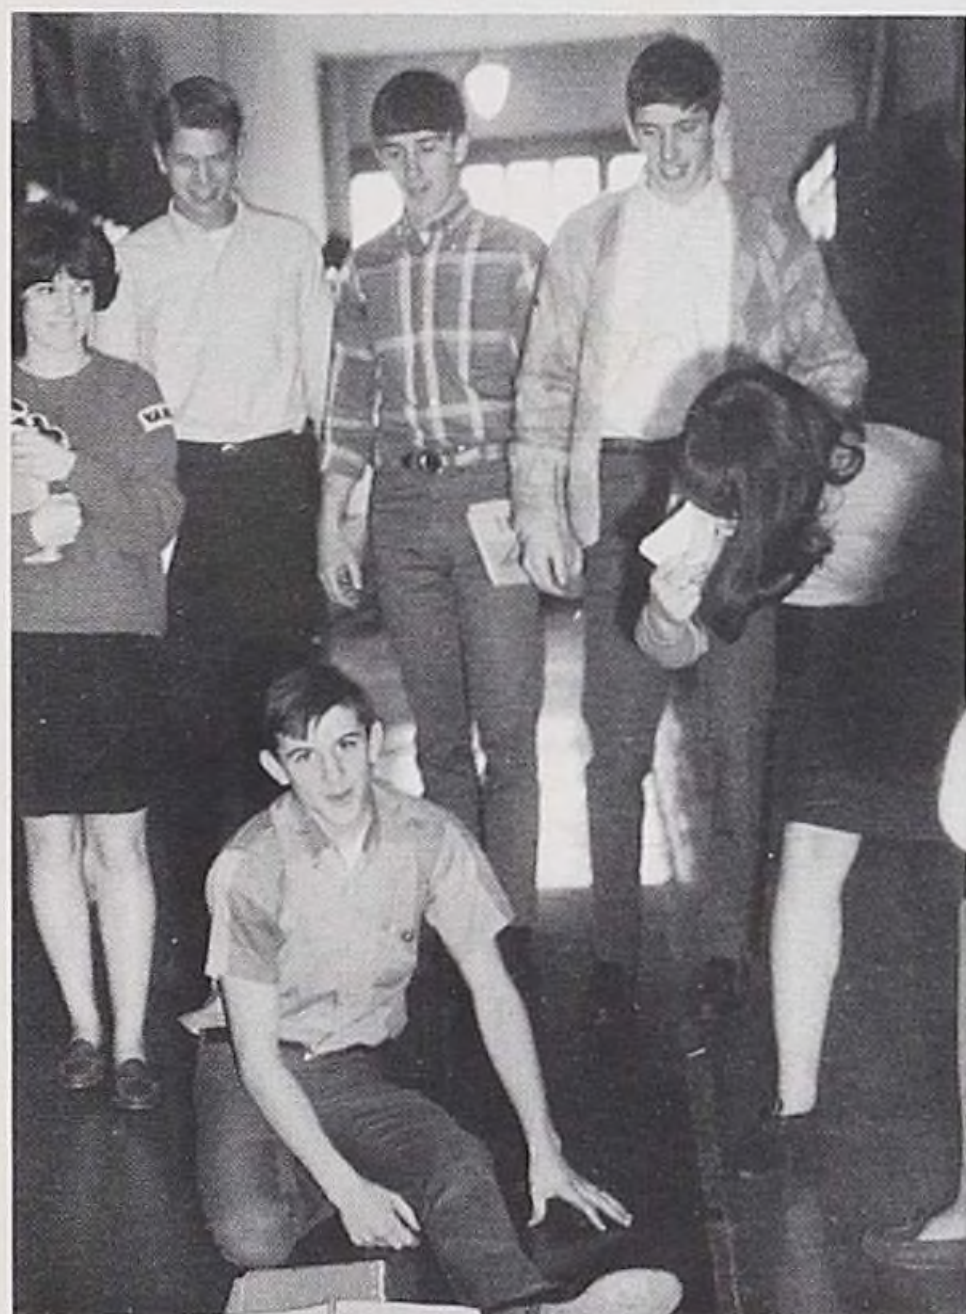

INTERESTS FOR ALL

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

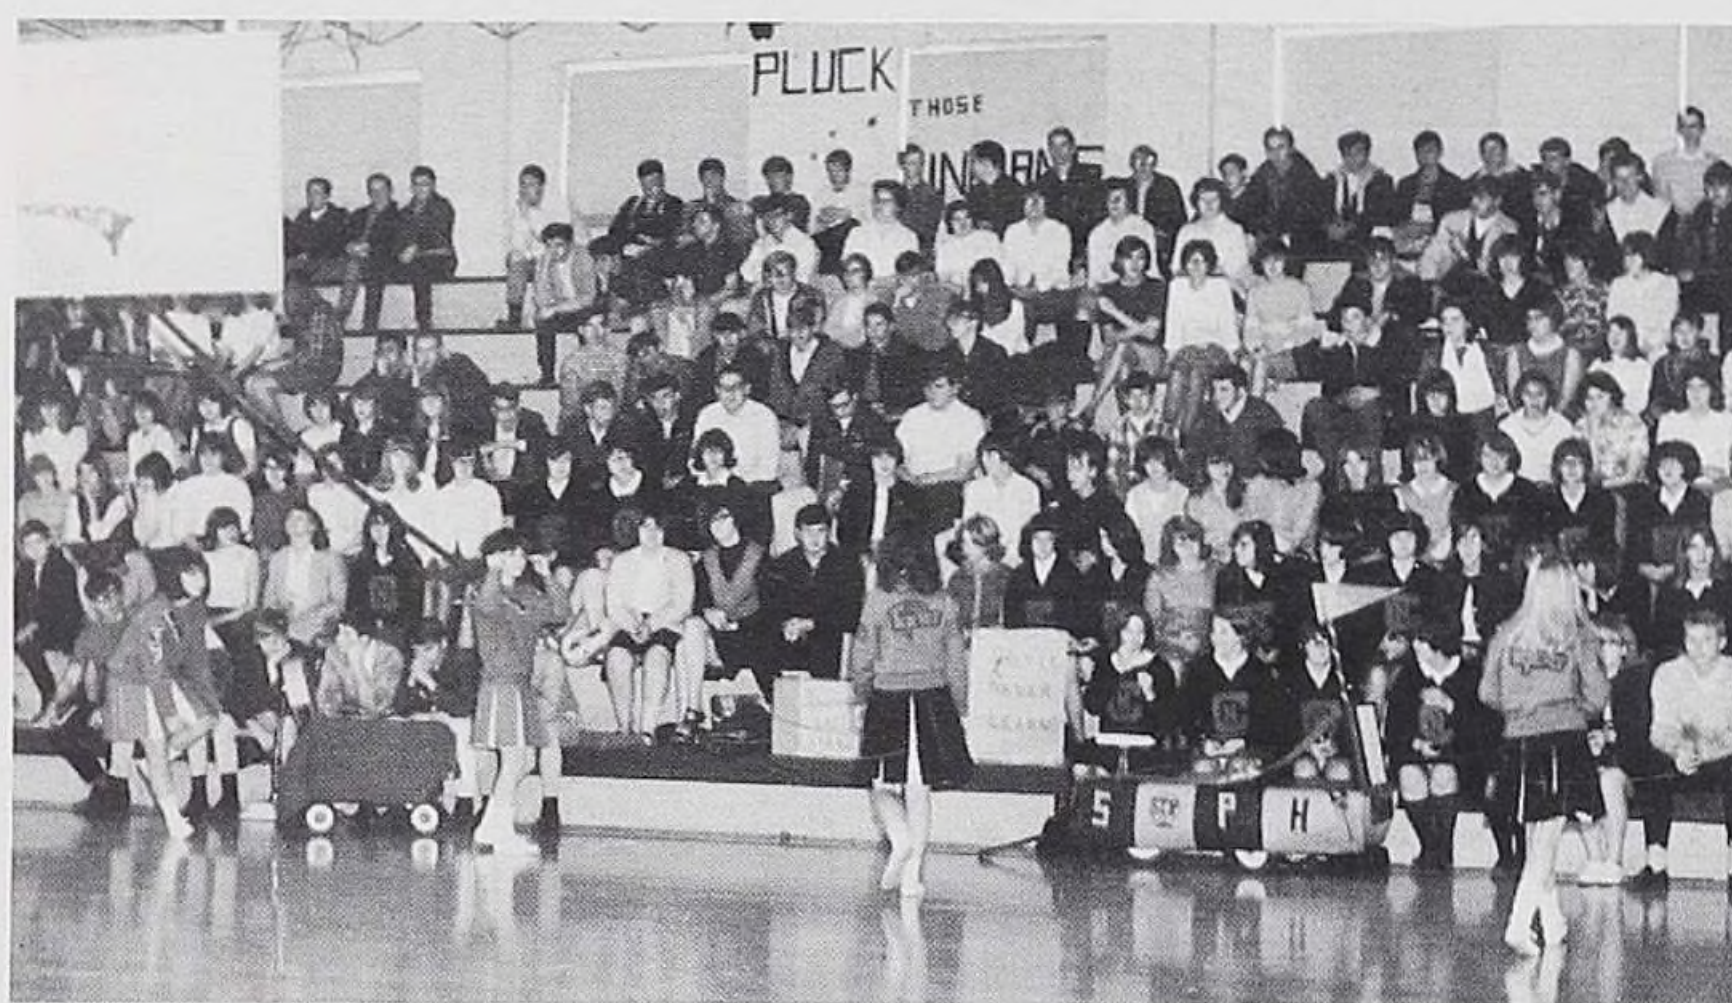

During Christmas vacation a new brand of wax was put on the floors; therefore, some students found it hard to walk.

Nevertheless, they made their way to assemblies to hear special speakers, participate in special events, and cheer Tigers to victory.

FOR STUDENTS

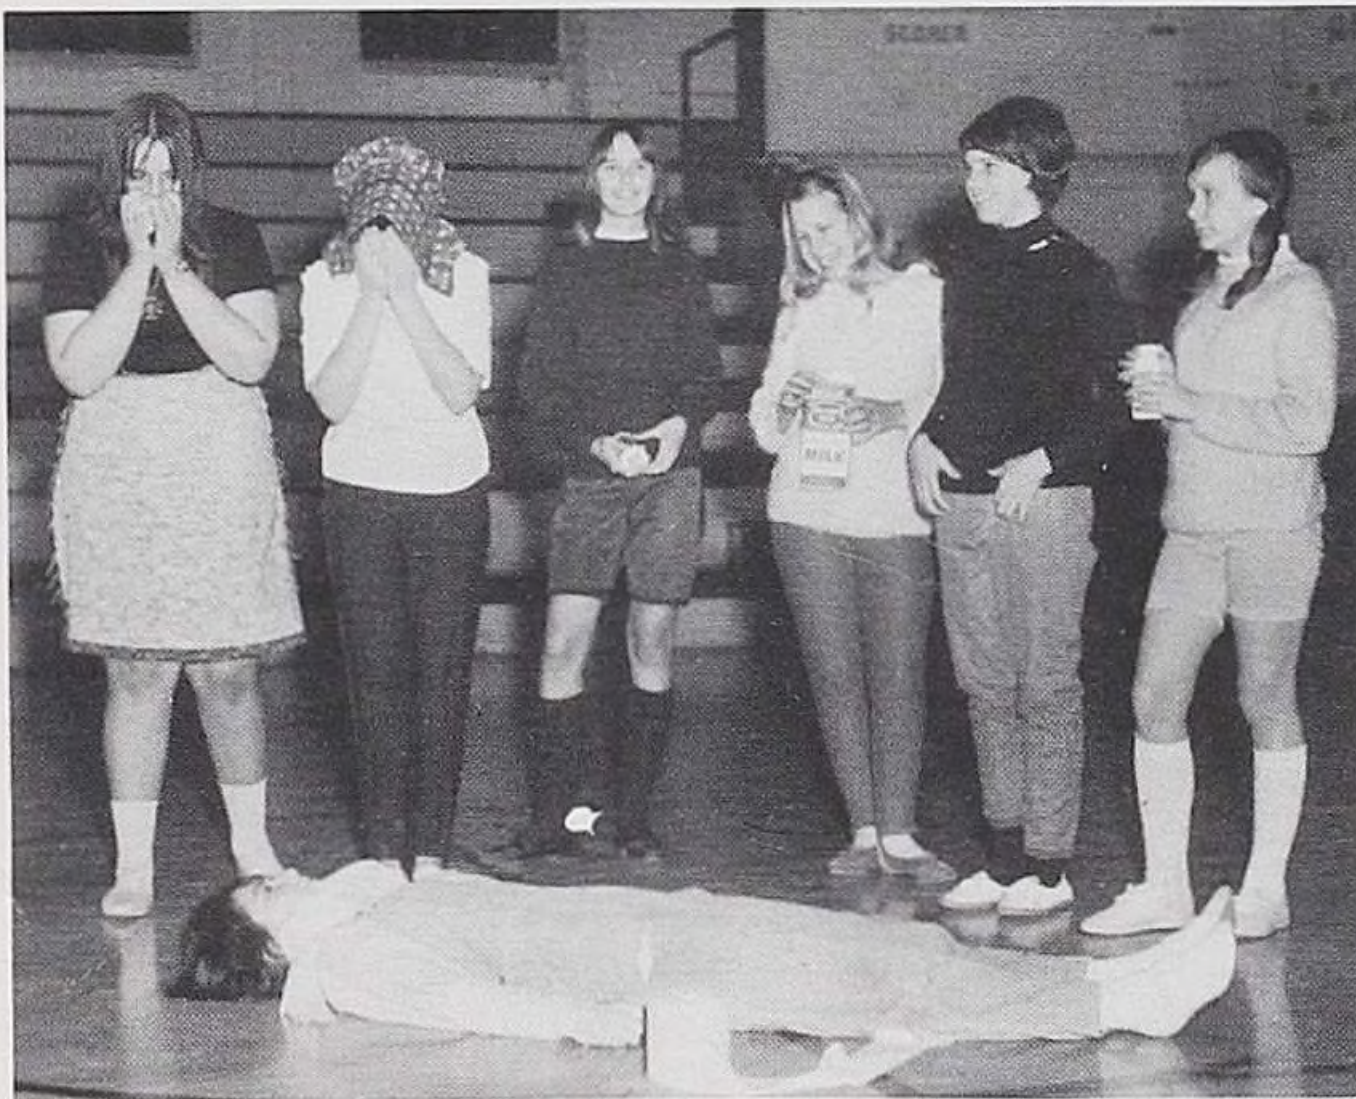

Although most students were anxious to leave school at 3:15, many stayed to participate in numerous activities.

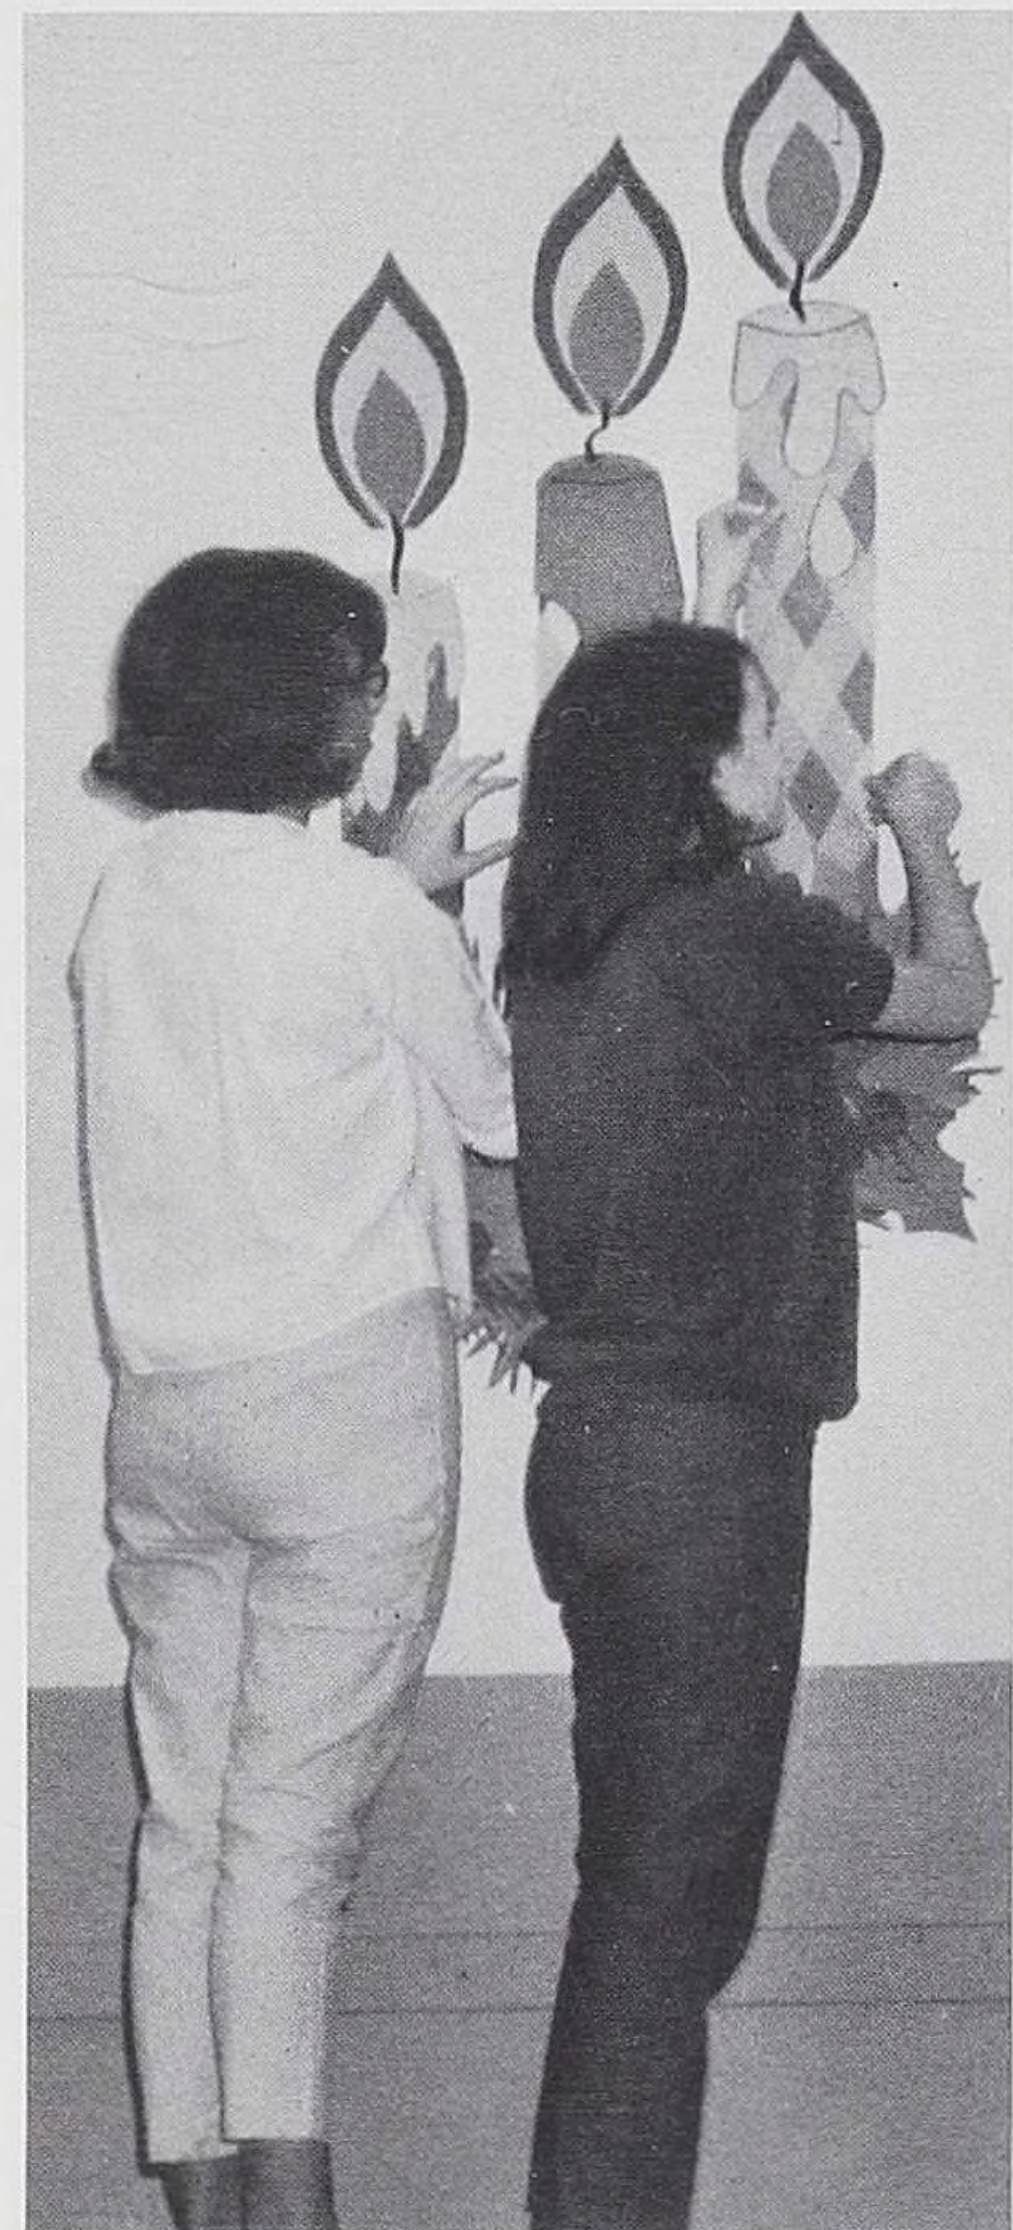

Athletics and GAA provided an outlet for the active, while yearbook and FTA worked long hours to benefit other students.

CLASSES END AND

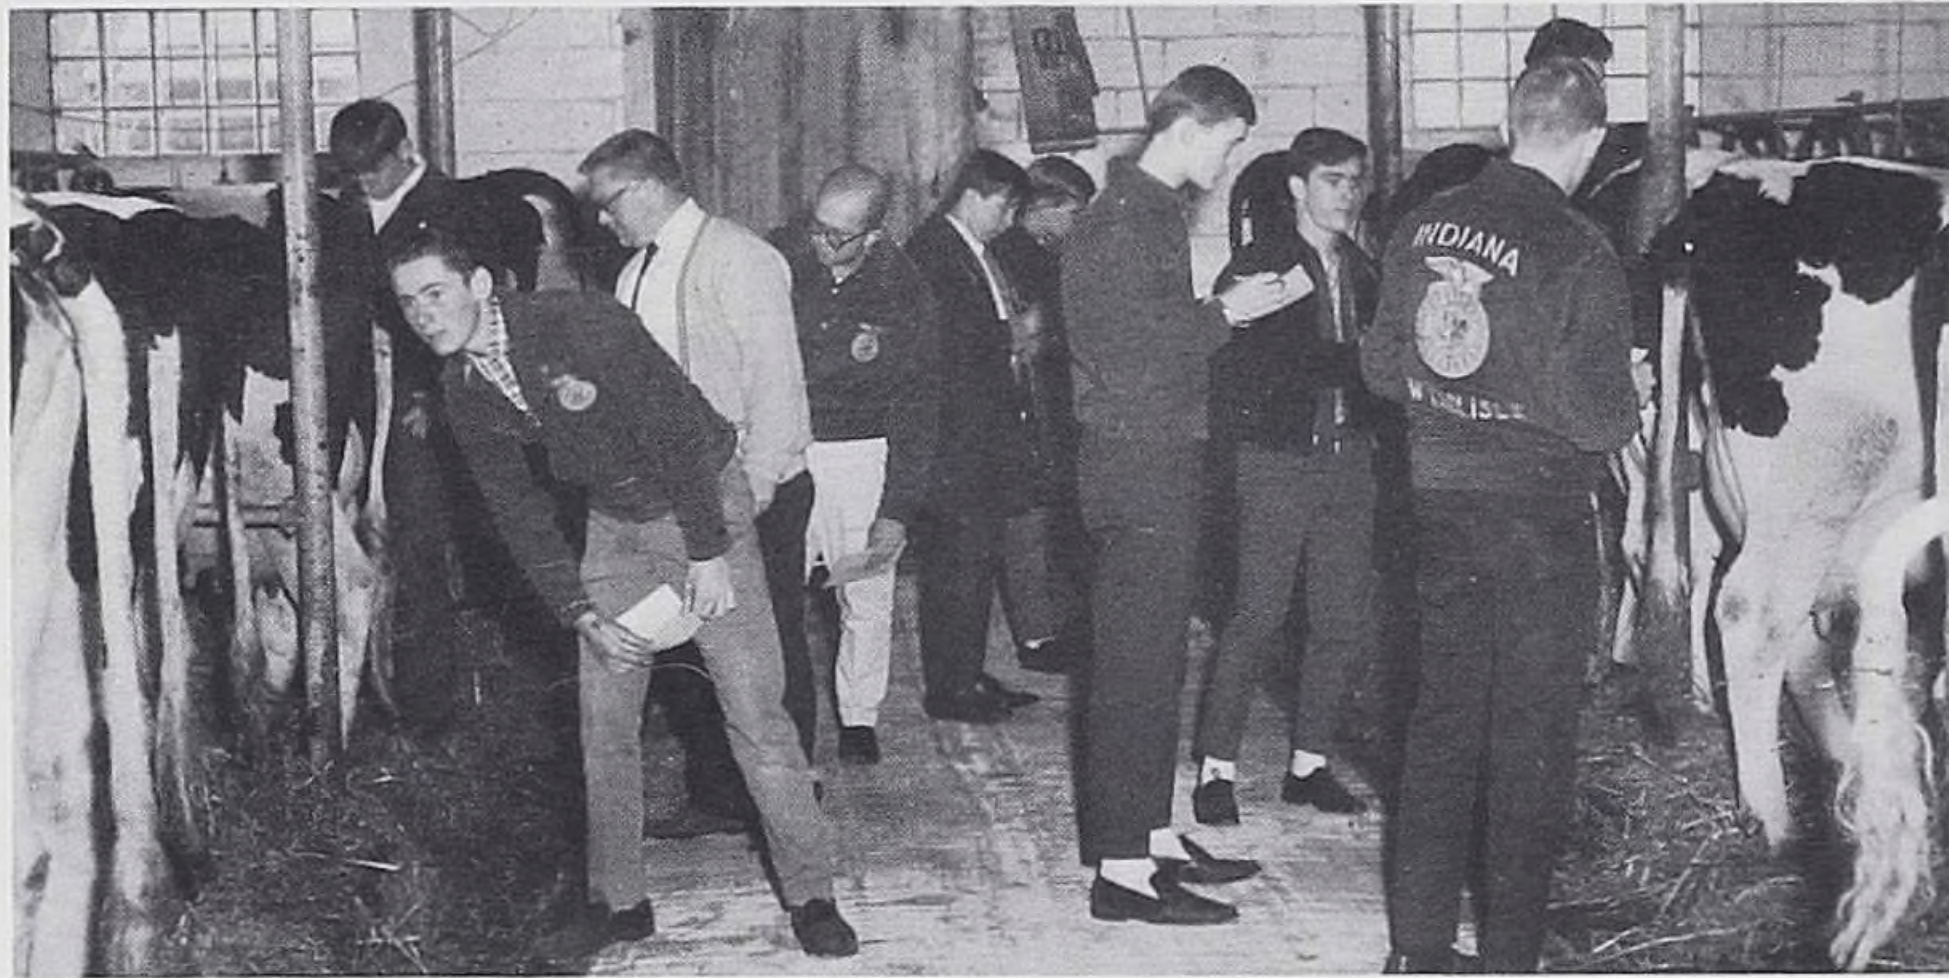

ACTIVITIES BEGIN

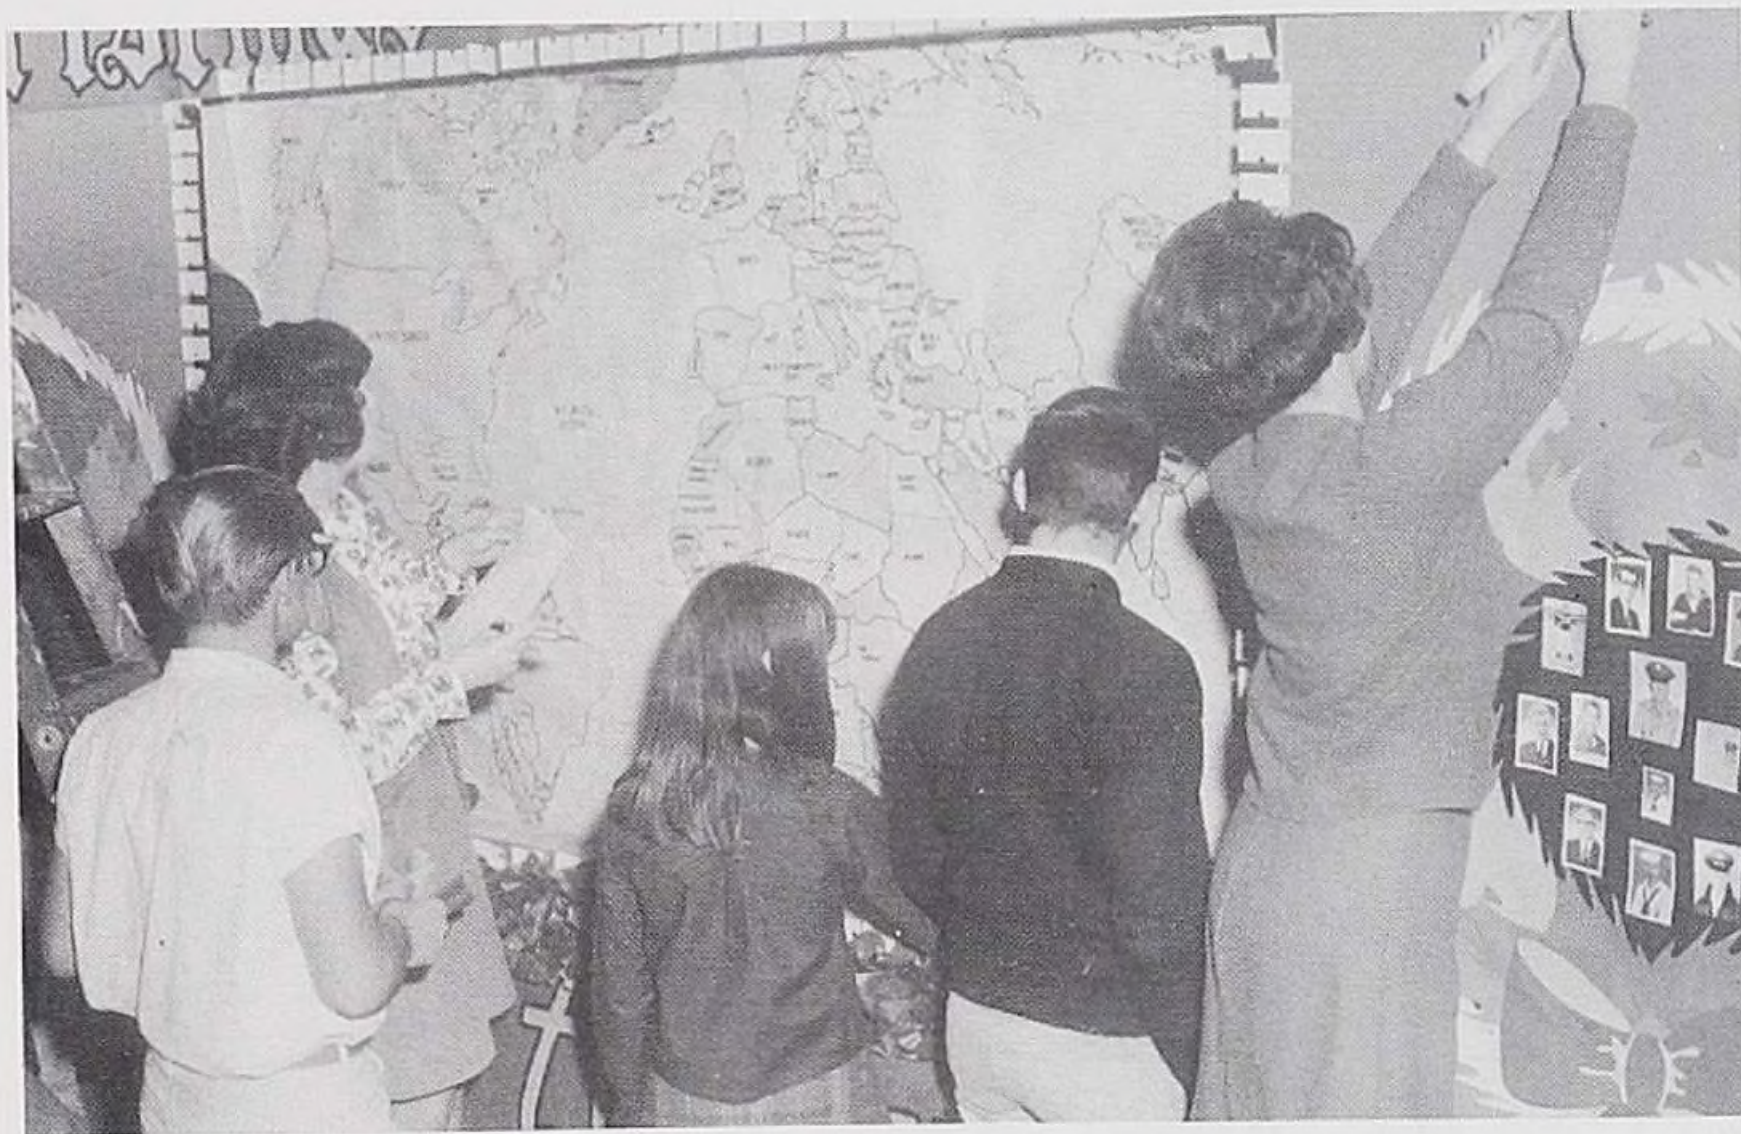

CLUBS PROVIDE

A VARIETY OF INTERESTS

A new and interesting project was the dedication to the Servicemen by the FTA. The FFA entered several contests, and the FHA had their annual cookbook sales. The Tigerettes performed at half-time during games.

MOMENT

Students entertained and were entertained by participating in a number of activities.

Concerts, plays and class parties were among the many that kept students on the go.

HOMECOMING BONFIRE

Homecoming highlighted the football season—Ring of the Victory Bell, Snake Dancing, and a blazing Bonfire became a new part of the Homecoming festivities.

Football was the center of interest on the action scene, as fans turned out to cheer the team on to victory.

Seniors were excited, yet filled with a touch of sorrow throughout the entire year. This year's graduates participated actively in school functions, knowing that this would be their last year together. Now as the students go their separate ways, they realize that this year is not the end, but only the beginning.

Junior Officers, STANDING: Dan Akin, president. SITTING: Brenda Cox, secretary; Wayne Doba, treasurer; Mark Belsaas, vice president.

Following the established tradition of previous Juniors, the class of '68 ordered their class rings. The class chose the "Classic", a design never seen on the ring market before.

Among the many other Junior activities, planning the annual prom was one of the most outstanding. The days before the prom were hectic, but all worries were in vain, for the prom was a glorious success.

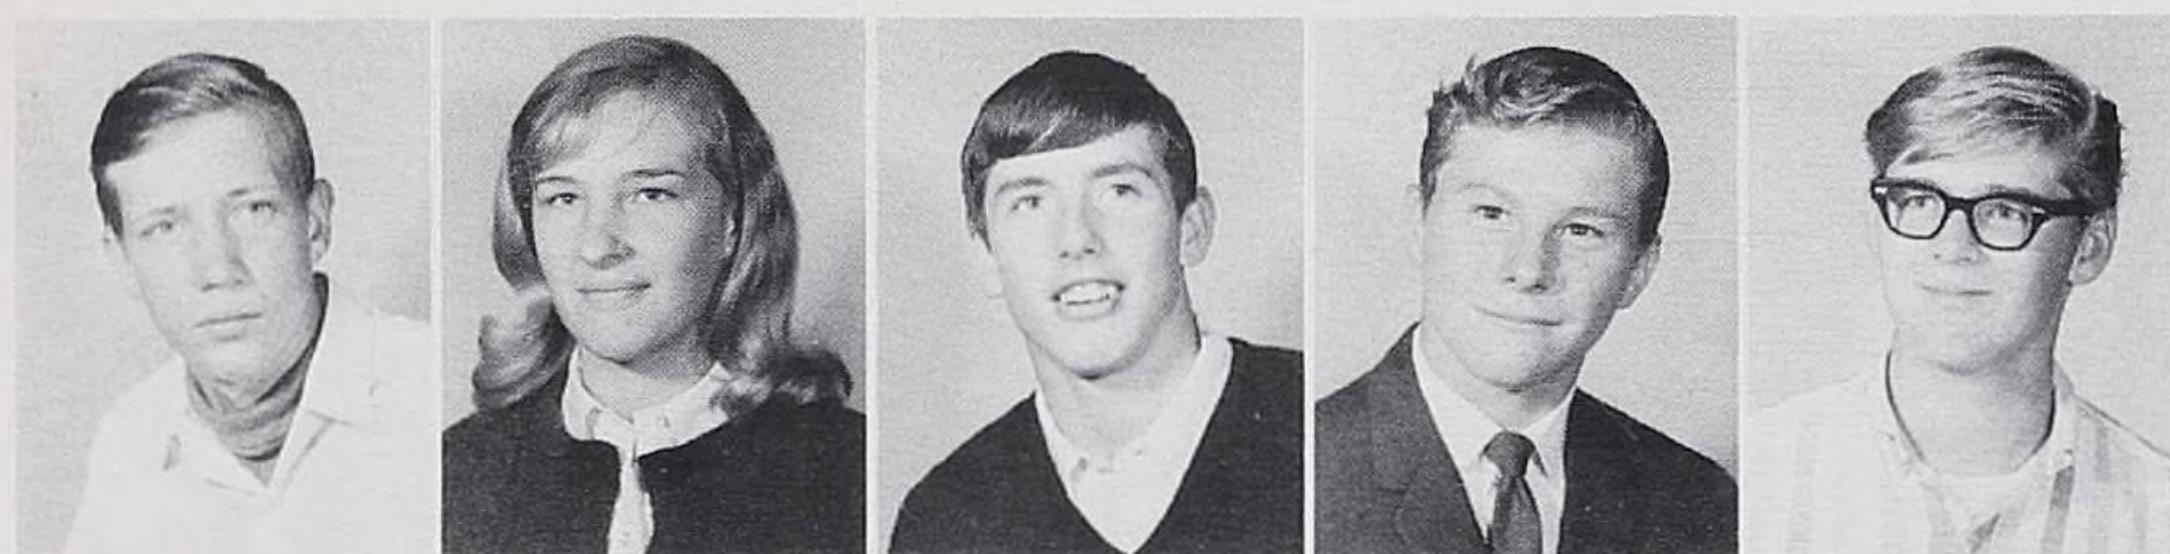

The Juniors are preparing for their final year at NCHS, and anticipating a great one.

CLASS OF '69

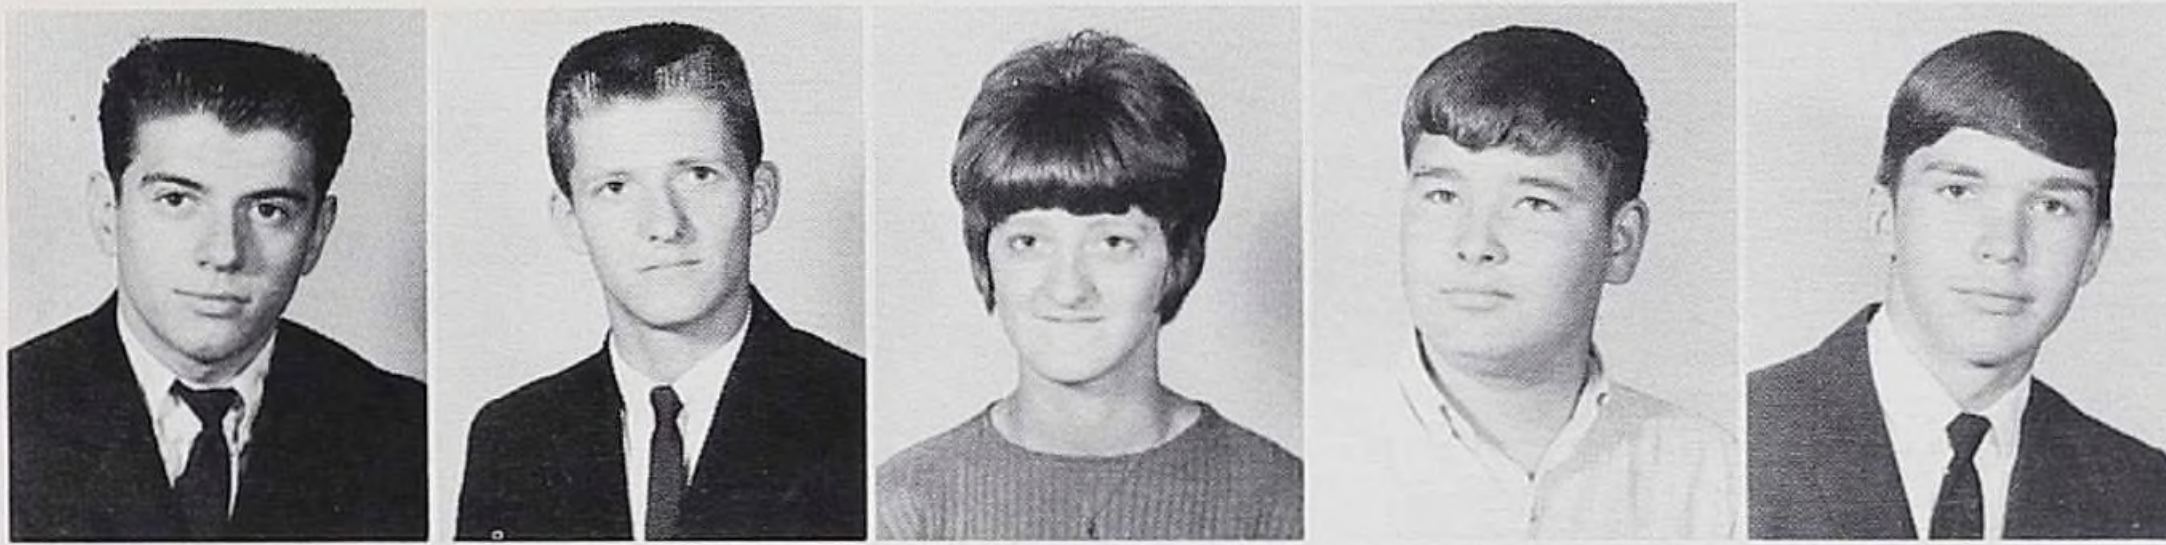

Sophomore Officers: Stan Noel, president; Bonnie Deer, vice president; Lynell Clark, treasurer; Sue Shoff, secretary.

Sophomores began the school year with the annual magazine sales. They achieved and went over the top of their goal.

After class meetings and a lot of discussion, the class selected black jackets with orange lettering. They arrived at the end of the first semester. Being of strong school spirit, the sophomores won the "spirit stick" several times. They added members to all the school's clubs and organizations, including sports in which they contributed players to all Varsity squads.

As their high school careers reached the halfway mark, the Class of '69 await their Junior year in which they will order class rings and take part in Prom planning.

Freshman officers: Dennis Higgins, vice president; Rich Dodd, president; Diana McDonnough, treasurer; Marsha Watkins, secretary.

Eagerly awaiting the beginning of school, the new class of freshmen anticipated the beginning days of high school—with the problems of lockers, chums, classes and books.

The day arrived and the class had their first class-officer election. From then on they were busy accepting the responsibility of high school studies and homework.

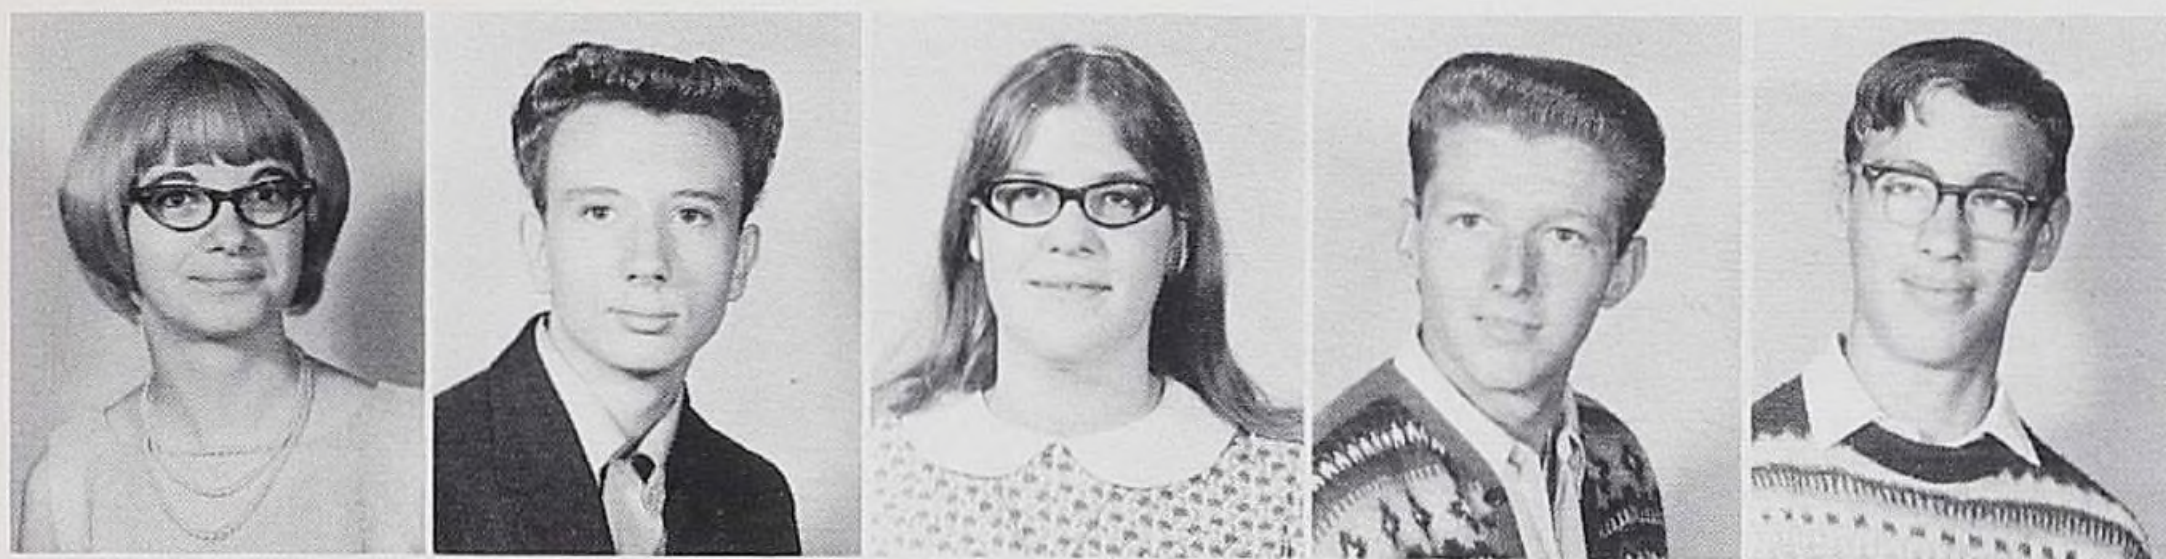

As the year progressed the freshmen began anticipating the next year when they will get their class jackets, and sell magazines for their treasury.

*Well, You're a good old pal and fellow
 --- maniac. You deserve only the best out of life and I hope you get it. Remember all the good old times.
 Lots of luck.
 May God Always Bless You.
 Love,
 Jan*

Farewell

When graduation day approaches
And our eyes slowly fill with tears,
We realize with sudden sadness
That our parting time is near.

The rooms once so familiar Become a treasure to behold,
For hidden within these ordinary rooms
Are our memories of precious gold.

Memories fond and cherished
Of good times shared with friends,
Memories full of laughter and gladness,
Memories that will never end.

But our years weren't easy-going;
We had our share of falls.
Yet patience and determination Enabled us to overcome them all.

At last our task has been accomplished.
Our first goal has been reached.
And now we'd like to advise you
With words so often preached:

Study hard, but stay healthy;
Be careful in anything you do.
Always be considerate of your teachers.
Now good luck and may God bless you.

GOOD LUCK

There is a time for some things,
And a time for all things;
A time for great things
And a time for small things.

Soon another staff will be publishing another book. We hope that through this year our staff has captured the memorable events. Many have given of their precious time to editing this book, and for this we owe our thanks.

As another year approaches, let us all face it with the enthusiasm and faith that is so essential in this complex world.

- Lynell -

To one of my positively absolutely bestest friends. (Happy Birthday)
you're really going to go places. You're so sweet!!
I'm sure glad we're friends.
Never forget our good times.
Best Always.

Love,
Devon

Lynell -
So a real sweet admirer. I know whom I really admire. I know you'll go far. Lots of luck always!
May God bless you always!
Love, Betty

Lynell -
Even though we haven't been as close this year as some of the others I still think of you as a really great friend. I'll never forget your birthday party. It was so great! I'm looking forward to this summer. Maybe we can get together more then at summer parties. I'll still have to make some more trips to the cemetery. I enjoyed that. I'm still peaceful. Well, I have counting on you if I have a problem about it. I know you'd listen. Good luck!!
Love,
Cindy

Lynell - happy with your future and I'm sure you'll be a- learning in very good luck
very good luck
May God bless you and may God
-70-

Well,
you are one of my bestest friends!
I want it to stay that way. Have fun, behave yourself though. Best of luck always.

Well,
To a real great and sweet gal. We're bad in real bad together in Biology and other places I wish you all the luck in the world.
Love ya lots,
Janie

Well,
To a girl with a wonderful personality.
may you go far in life. Good luck always.

Sister of Brutus,

Is one of the best girls going and a great friend. I hope you never succumb to change. All the luck
in the world.

Cobb

Synell,
To about the nicest and coolest girl I know. Thanks for all the help in Alg.
cause I needed it.
I can guess how I will do without you next year in plane Geometry.
Hope were in the same study hall next year and glad you're taking French.
Cause I know I couldn't get along without
ya. You deserve the best and you should get it.

Love, Scott

Lynell,
To a doll, I've known for a l-on-g time. Stay sweet. God bless you.

Love

Lynell, Truly one of the nicest girls I've ever known. You're loads of fun cause you've got a great personality. Best of luck in everything you do.
Doug

Nell,
To a girl who grades like a bear in Latin but who is a real good looking girl.
